INTRODUCTION

It is the purpose of the 1962 RECALL to give a pictorial account of life at Columbia Military Academy. With the use of pictures, the 1962 RECALL Staff hopes to have portrayed the academic, military, social, and extra-curricular activities and organizations of campus life.

We at C.M.A. are proud of having a superior faculty and each year the RECALL Staff takes pleasure in dedicating an edition of the RECALL to a faculty member who has best exemplified the qualities of an outstanding teacher and leader. Thus, we use this means as an expression of our appreciation to the faculty, which has helped us develop in scholarship and character.

The serious role of a student is portrayed in the Academic section where scholastic achievement is recognized in the Scholarship and Honor Roll groups. The knowledge of having achieved this goal instills confidence and pride into every student who has put forth the required effort.

In the Military section, the leadership development of a cadet is stressed. Through the R.O.T.C. program and the personal example set by the members of the Military Staff, the principles and importance of patriotism and leadership are imbued into the mind of each young man.

The exciting side of C.M.A. life is shown in the Athletic section. The thrills of a winning touchdown, the suspense of a pole vault, and the crack of a bat striking a baseball are all brought to mind when one views these pictures.

The social and extra-curricular activities and organizations of campus life are depicted in the Features and Activities sections of the RECALL. By being a member of the various groups in the Activities section, a cadet may enjoy a fuller, richer life by associating and serving with others.

Each cadet contributes his part to make C.M.A. what it is; likewise each cadet contributes a part to the school yearbook. This is your RECALL: you have made it.

COLONEL C. A. RAGSDALE

*"Of high ideals and virtue was his speech;
And gladly would he learn, and gladly teach."*

Using these words, Geoffrey Chaucer described an Oxford scholar in the fourteenth century. Today, almost six hundred years after their writing, the same words aptly describe Colonel C. A. Ragsdale.

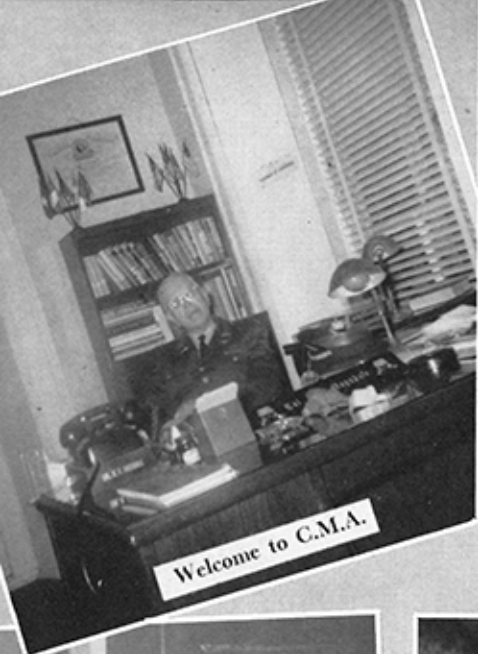

Devoting his life to shaping the minds and characters of young men, Colonel Ragsdale has served C.M.A. for thirty-two years. During this time he has endeavored to maintain high standards of scholarship and stern, though just, discipline. Colonel Ragsdale has always been willing to assist and advise students with their problems, both academic and personal. He has constantly strived to instill in the Cadets an awareness of the importance of the development of scholarship and good character in preparation for a successful and useful life. Though few of the Cadets now at C.M.A. have had the good fortune of having him as a teacher in the classroom, Colonel Ragsdale has exerted a lasting influence on the life of every student.

For these many reasons the RECALL Staff of 1962 pays tribute to the President of Columbia Military Academy. With heartfelt respect and gratitude, we do dedicate the 1962 RECALL to Colonel C. A. Ragsdale: educator, counsellor, gentleman, and friend.

DEDICATION

Welcome to C.M.A.

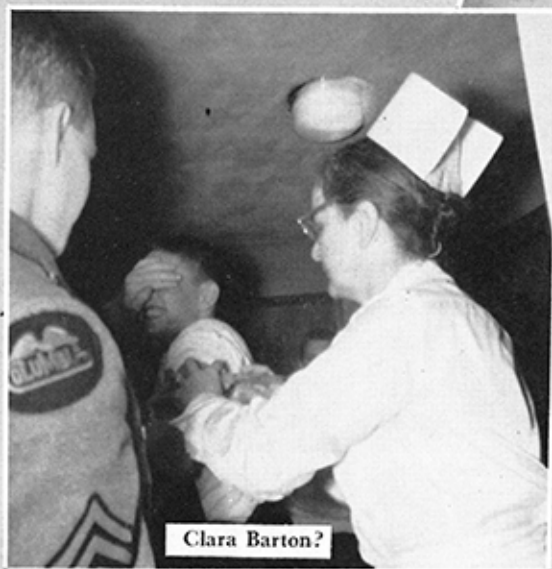

Suckers!

Let's twist again.

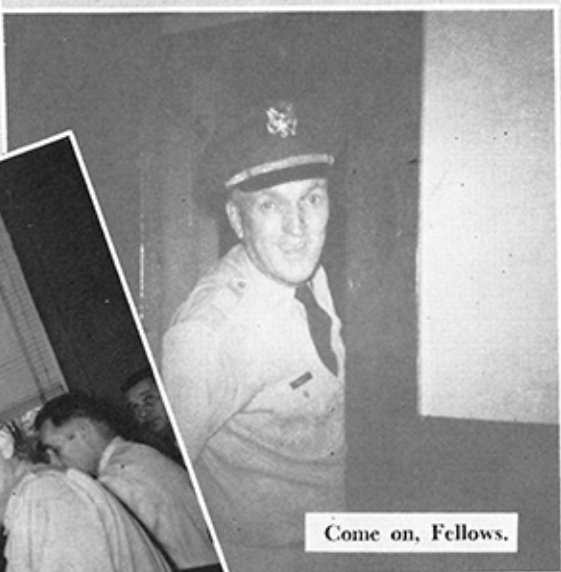

You better not.

ACADEMIC

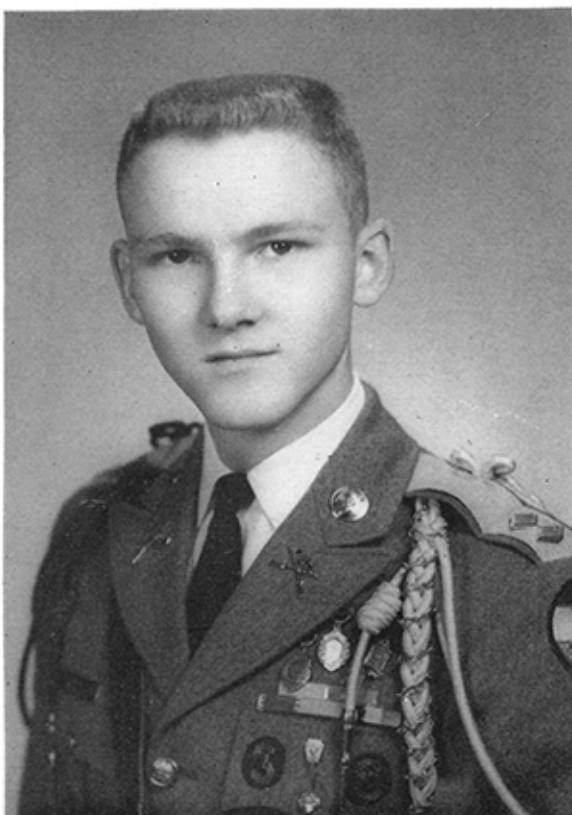

VALEDICTORIAN

Lee Gordon Denton of Gatlinburg, Tennessee, has won the highest academic award conferred by Columbia Military Academy. With a grade average of 94.72, Lee is Valedictorian of the Senior Class of 1962. Having attended C.M.A. for four years, he has established an extraordinary scholastic record. During his Freshman and Sophomore years Lee was second in class standing. As a Junior, he won the Junior Class Medal and the Chemistry Medal. Lee's military grades have been high, thus placing him in the top ten per cent of his military class each year. But his activities are not limited solely to study. For three years Lee has been a member of the Gold Star Drill Platoon, acting as Assistant Drill Master this year. For his qualities as a leader, he has received the Association of the United States Army Medal for the Outstanding M.S.T. III Junior and the Third Army Ribbon as the outstanding cadet in M.S.T. III. In addition, Lee has qualified as an expert marksman. A member of the National Honor Society, Lee serves as President of the C.M.A. chapter. He has served as Secretary and Vice-President of the Y.M.C.A. and has received the Good Conduct Ribbon one year. Lee is assigned to the Staff as Battle Group Executive Officer and holds the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He was elected to the Hall of Fame and the Senior Class gave him the Superlative "Most Likely to Succeed." Planning to study chemical engineering, Lee will enter the University of Tennessee next fall.

SALUTATORIAN

The Academic Department has awarded Leverett Lynn Guess of Columbia, Tennessee, the second highest scholastic honor: Salutatorian of the Class of 1962. Earning the honor of Salutatorian is a continuation of his underclass years during which Lynn earned the class medals in his Freshman and Sophomore years, the science medals in general science and biology, and was second in the Junior Class standing. By being in the top ten per cent of his M.S.T. classes, Lynn has received the military wreath for academic achievement for four years. Active in many fields, he has been on the Gold Star Drill Platoon for three years. He has worked on the Dance Committee for three years, serving this year as Chairman of the Committee, and has been on the RECALL Staff two years, his Junior year as Class Editor and this year as Editor-in-Chief. During his Freshman year, Lynn was chosen the "Superior Cadet" in Military Science I, and he has received the Good Conduct Ribbon for two years. Leading the Cadet Corps as Battle Group Commander, Lynn was the first local cadet appointed to this position in the history of the school, a testimony to his outstanding abilities as a leader. In addition, he was the second cadet to receive the rank of Colonel, further evidence of his exemplary service. A member of the National Honor Society, Lynn has exhibited the finest qualities of scholarship, service, leadership, and character. Elected to the Hall of Fame, Lynn was also elected "Mr. C.M.A." by the Senior Class. Lynn will enter the University of Tennessee in the fall to study medicine.

SCHOLARSHIP BADGE

Maintaining a scholastic grade average of 86 or better in each subject is not an easy job and requires constant study and effort. Because of the difficulty of the task, only five per cent of the students at C.M.A. are able to boast of having accomplished this feat. But to the few who reach that goal during any one semester, the Academic Department awards a Scholarship Badge, a handsome red "S" embroidered on a black oval. Also, if a student has a final grade average of 86 or better in each subject, he is awarded a Scholarship Pin during the Commencement Exercises. The Scholarship Badge and the Scholarship Pin represent the highest distinction a cadet can earn scholastically.

HONOR ROLL

To qualify for membership in the Honor Roll group a cadet must have an average of 80 or better in every subject. The cadets pictured below have achieved the distinction of being in the Honor Roll group for the first semester by virtue of their hard work and diligent study. Although no badge or pin is awarded to the Honor Roll students, a cadet who meets the scholastic requirements for Honor Roll has every reason to be proud, for only ten per cent of the student body accomplishes this outstanding feat. Like the Scholarship rating, Honor Roll is also evaluated on a full-year basis. The cadets who maintain the 80 average throughout the entire year are recognized during the Commencement Exercises. These cadets are to be commended for their effort and fine work.

ALMA MATER

On Columbia's western border,
Reared against the sky,
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
As the years go by.

Foward ever be our watchword,
Conquer and prevail.

Hail to Thee, our Alma Mater.

MILITARY

MILITARY STAFF

The mission of the Reserve Officers Training Corps at Columbia Military Academy is to introduce the students to basic military subjects, to inculcate habits of orderliness and precision, to instill discipline and thereby respect for constituted authority, to develop patriotism, to encourage a high standard of personal honor and deportment, and to prepare the student for participation in Advanced Military Training.

In carrying out this mission, the Military Staff of Columbia Military Academy has been most effective. Under the leadership of the Professor of Military Science, Major Crowley, until February when he was transferred to Viet Nam, the Military Staff conducted classes and supervised drill periods. Replacing Major Crowley as P.M.S., Captain Mason Shelton, assisted by the Staff, has carried out a similar program of instruction and training. This program has been successful in increasing the knowledge, proficiency, discipline, and Esprit de Corps of the Battle Group, shown by the performance during the annual Federal Inspection in March. In addition to their duties as instructors, members of the Military Staff supervise the Gold Star Drill Platoon and the Rifle Team and conduct thorough inspections of the dormitories and cadets.

The Cadet Staff is the executive unit of the Cadet Corps. These officers are responsible for command, intelligence, training, administrative, and supply operations. The Staff also grades parades and drill performances and at the end of each month and year calculates the total points to determine the Efficiency Company.

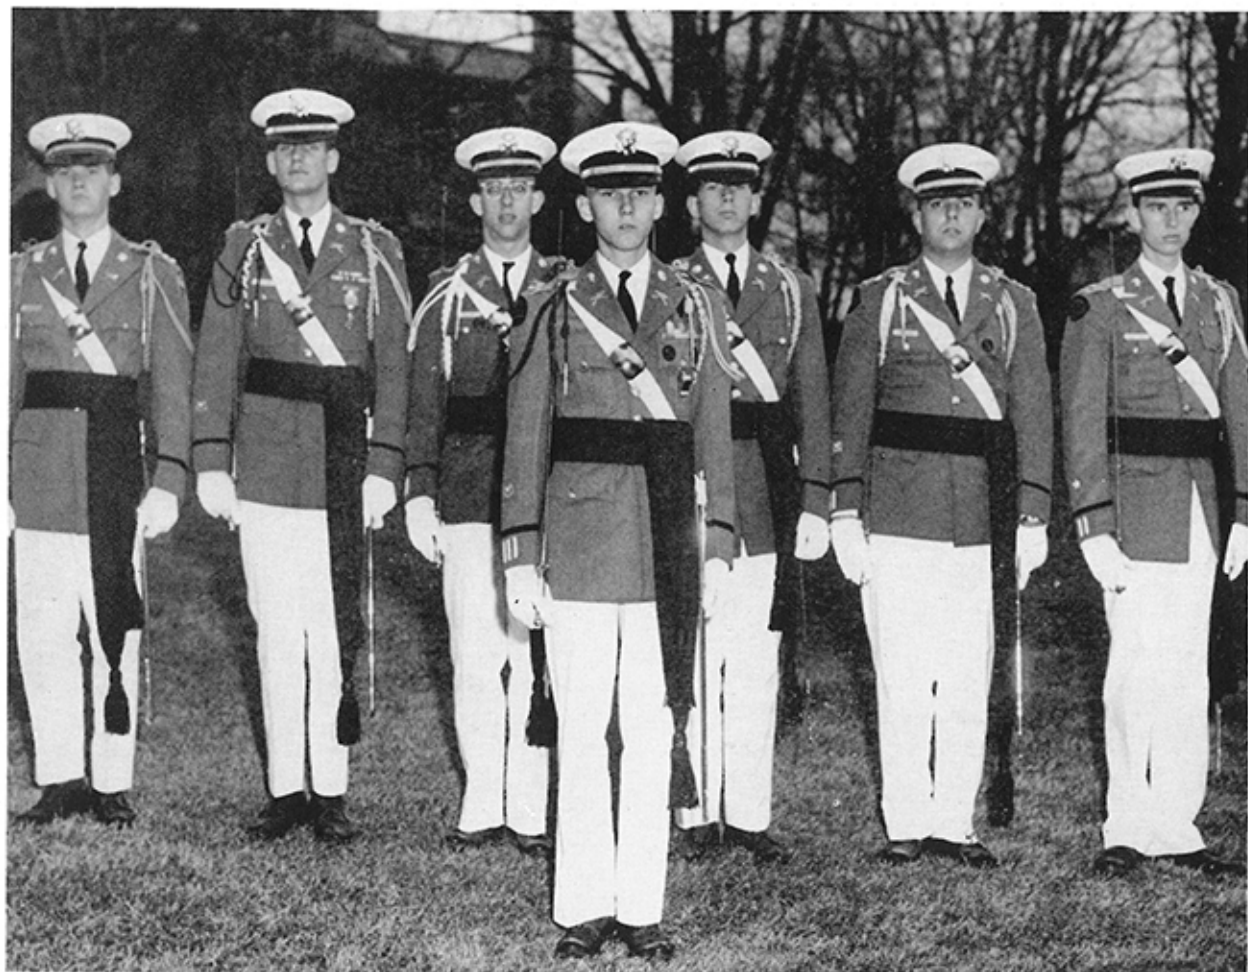

The Battle Group Commander, the senior officer in the Cadet Corps, is in charge of all phases of cadet life stemming from the Commandant's Office and Military Department and is responsible for executing the orders of the Commandant and P.M.S.

CADET STAFF

Cadet Colonel Lynn Guess, Battle Group Commander; Cadet Captain Greer, S-1; Cadet Captain Johnson, S-3; Cadet Lieutenant Colonel Denton, Battle Group Executive Officer; Cadet First Lieutenant Clanton, Assistant

The Battle Group Executive Officer is the assistant to the Commander; the S-1, or Adjutant, is responsible for all formations and assists in the administrative details of the Commandant's Office; the S-2 is the Public Relations Officer; the S-3 is the Training and Operations Officer; the Supply and Maintenance Officer is the S-4; the position of Sergeant Major was recently created to aid in the administrative details of the Battle Group. Assistants to some primary Staff officers were added too late in the year to be pictured.

ASSISTANT DRILLMASTER
Cadet Major Gordon Denton
Gatlinburg, Tennessee

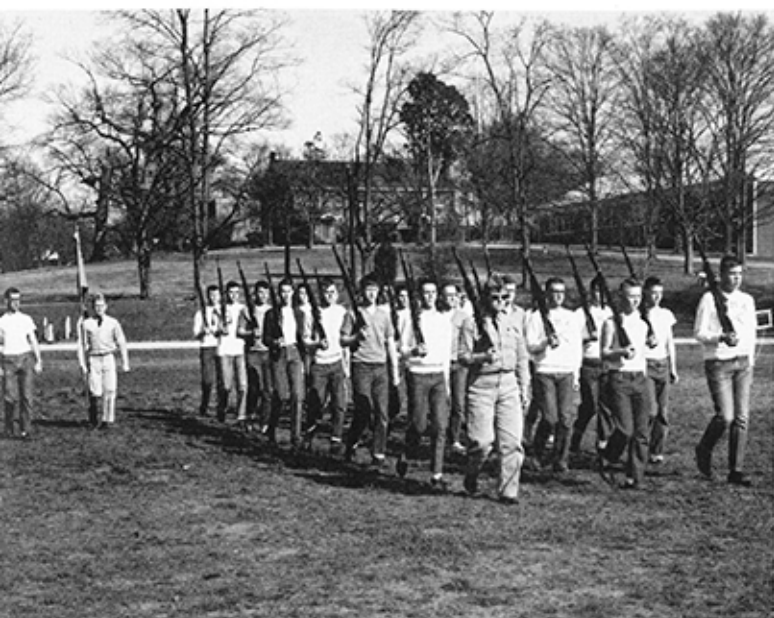

Nothing sets off a street parade or a dress parade better than a sharp, quick-stepping, precision drill unit. The Gold Star Drill Platoon is one such unit. The cadets, all volunteers, practice hard, endeavoring to become masters of the art of military drill.

Gold Star, in correlation with the Band and Color Guard, serves as an honor guard for important visitors on the campus. The Drill Platoon also performs in street parades and during half-time at football games all over Middle Tennessee. Gold Star is known throughout the South for its brilliant displays at the annual Vanderbilt University Drill Meet and at the Cotton Carnival in Memphis, Tennessee.

The Junior Platoon is made up of boys who are trying to become members of the Senior Platoon. As soon as a cadet in this unit proves himself efficient in all the movements of precision drill, he graduates to the Senior Platoon.

The Gold Star Drill Platoon is commanded by Captain Page. Lieutenant Colonel Denton assists Captain Page and drills the Junior Platoon. Both Platoons are supervised by M/Sgt. Zummach and Sfc. Arnold.

Gold Star practices for annual Vanderbilt University Drill Meet.

Gold Star serves as Honor Guard for Football Queen at Homecoming.

JUNIOR PLATOON

RIFLE TEAM

The Rifle Team had a very successful season this year although handicapped by injuries. Led by Team Captain Johnny Clanton, the Team lost only two shoulder-to-shoulder matches. Among the Team's victories are First Place in the National William Randolph Hearst Match, First Place in the Unclassified National Rifle Association Match for Essentially Military Schools, Mid-South Championship, Twelfth Army Corps Championship, and First Place in the Texas A&I Match. C.M.A. may feel justifiably proud, with coaches M/Sgt. Gilbert, Sgt. Barnes, and Captain Luce, to have the best rifle team in the nation.

FOOTBALL

The Bulldogs started the season without a single veteran from the previous year. Neither was there a squad-member who had ever played end position. These were two major factors to overcome. Jackie Chaffin, with an ankle injury, along with Bill Steers and Rick Royal who received knee injuries, was lost for the season. These injuries, plus a lack of experienced personnel and a tough schedule, made an impressive record almost impossible. Despite all these hindrances, the team had a good year. Most of the squad-members gave a good account of themselves and gained the respect of their opponents. That in itself can be considered a victory.

Charlie Oliver was not only voted All Mid-South halfback but also received the Orman Sportsmanship Trophy. Aaron Christian at center and Johnny Thompson at guard were second-string All Mid-South selections.

The 61-62 Basketball season was a disappointment as far as the record goes; for, to Coach Bill Wade and his courageous team, it was a year of constant struggle. Frequently the team played a team superior to it on the scoreboard, yet they never met one that could equal their fighting heart. The high point of the season was provided during the last week. The team opened the Mid-South Tournament by beating a strong S.M.A. team 63-62, then fought a good C.H.M.A. team, only to lose by two points in the last eight seconds of the semi-final game.

Next year the Bulldogs have something to look forward to, as four of the players will return. Coach Bill Wade is confident the championship will be brought back to C.M.A.

VARSITY TRACK

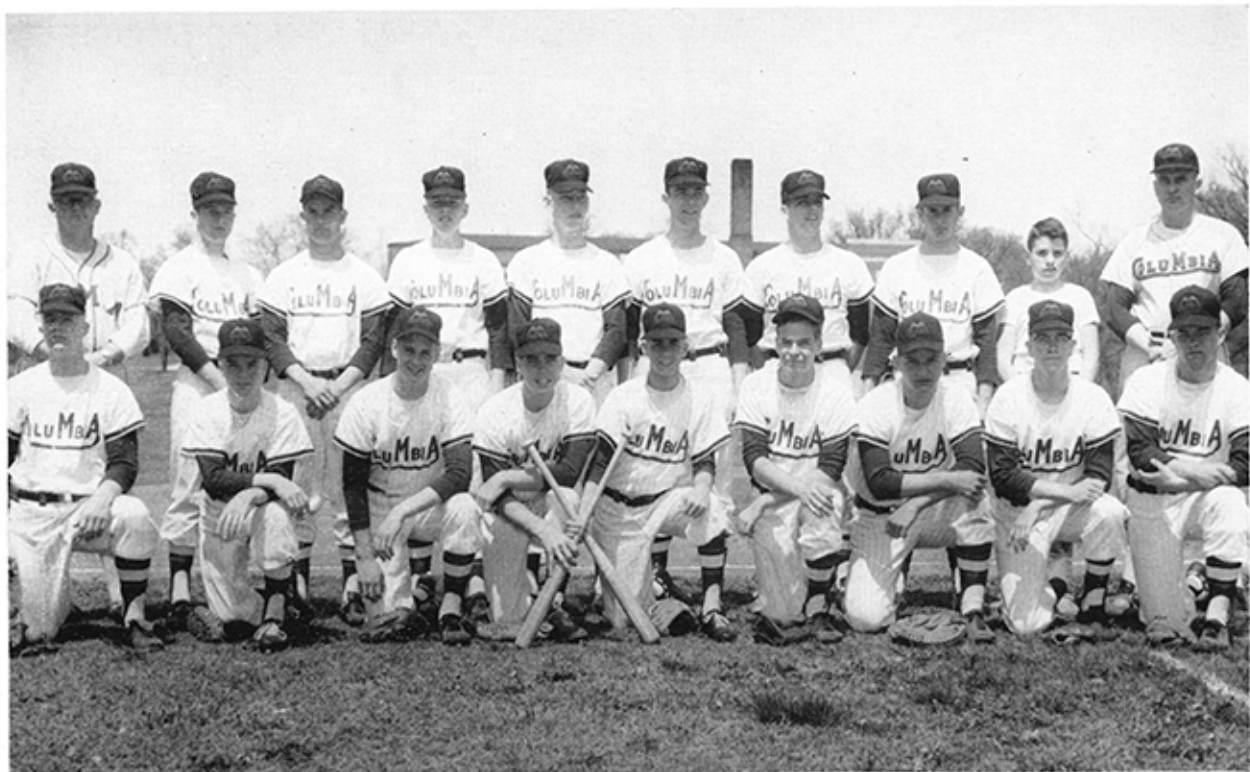

Chitcutt hands baton to Oliver in relay.

This year's squad was one of the finest in the history of C.M.A. The team was blessed with the top sprinters in the Mid-South: Minter, Chilcutt, Oliver, and Smith, and had the outstanding hurdlers in the league with Daggett and Minter. Garrison developed into a fine middle-distance man in the 880 and Minter, Hoffman, and Pawlouski in the weights gave C.M.A. excellent team balance.

Coached by Major Towles, who is assisted by Captain Allen, this year's great team won the 35th Annual Baylor Relays for the second time in school history.

In organizing the baseball team, several questions plagued the coaches, especially concerning the outfield and first base positions. Pitching, however, was fairly strong with Jim Kockentiet, a right-hander, and Bill Vaughn, a port-sider, as starters, backed up by Bill Nichols and Larry Watson as relief men. The infield was held together by Jackie Chaffin at third base and Neely Craig at second. Curtis Jordan did an adequate job at shortstop, while first base duties were shared by Bill Steers and Walter Lalley.

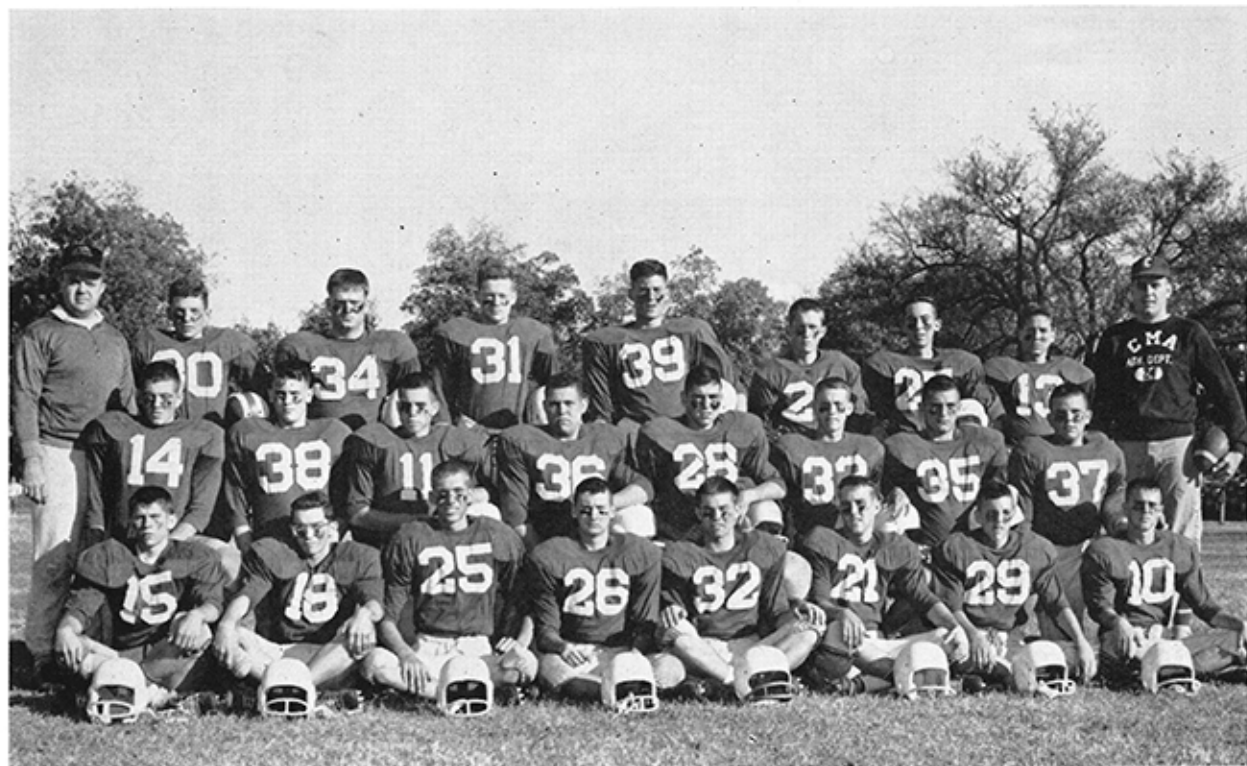

The team as a whole did rather well at bat, with Jim Kockentiet, Jackie Chaffin, Neely Craig, Nick and Curtis Jordan furnishing much of the fireworks.

Coach Tom Jones, assisted by Coach Bill Gunn and Coach Laurence Murphy, directed the team.

Neely Craig swings during practice batting.

MR. C. M. A.

When a Senior is elected Mr. C.M.A., he receives the highest honor which can be conferred upon a cadet by his peers. The Senior Class of 1962 has elected Lynn Guess of Columbia, Tennessee, to be Mr. C.M.A. We feel that Lynn, more than any other Senior, deserves this accolade. Seldom does a young man attain renown in so many divergent fields. Lynn has won high honors as Salutatorian of the Senior Class and Cadet Colonel. In all his efforts, Lynn has exemplified the qualities of a well-rounded individual.

THE HALL OF FAME

Membership in the Hall of Fame is based on character, scholarship, leadership, school spirit, contribution to the improvement of Columbia Military Academy, and indications of future success. Election to the Hall of Fame is one of the highest honors that can be bestowed upon a C.M.A. cadet. This is sponsored solely by the RECALL and there are no campus politics involved.

The cadets in the Hall of Fame are selected as follows: a nominating committee is selected by the faculty advisor of the RECALL and this committee in turn nominates twenty outstanding Seniors. The C.M.A. Faculty and the members of the Military Department then vote for six of the nominees who, in their opinion, measure up to the above qualifications.

YOUNG MEN'S

It has been said that the complete man is mature mentally, physically, and spiritually. At C.M.A., the school has a regular program whereby a boy may develop mentally and physically. With the exception of the required Sunday morning church attendance, however, C.M.A. did not have a program to provide spiritual enrichment for the cadets until 1944. At that time, Major Keylon Moore, the school chaplain, organized the Y.M.C.A. The Y.M.C.A. has done much to emphasize the ideals and character necessary in a Christian life now and in the future. With the cadets either presenting the program themselves or inviting guest speakers, choral groups, or musicians from the surrounding area, the Y.M.C.A. has helped provide inspiration and enjoyment for its members. The members of the Y.M.C.A. exert a helpful and constructive influence over every boy in the student body.

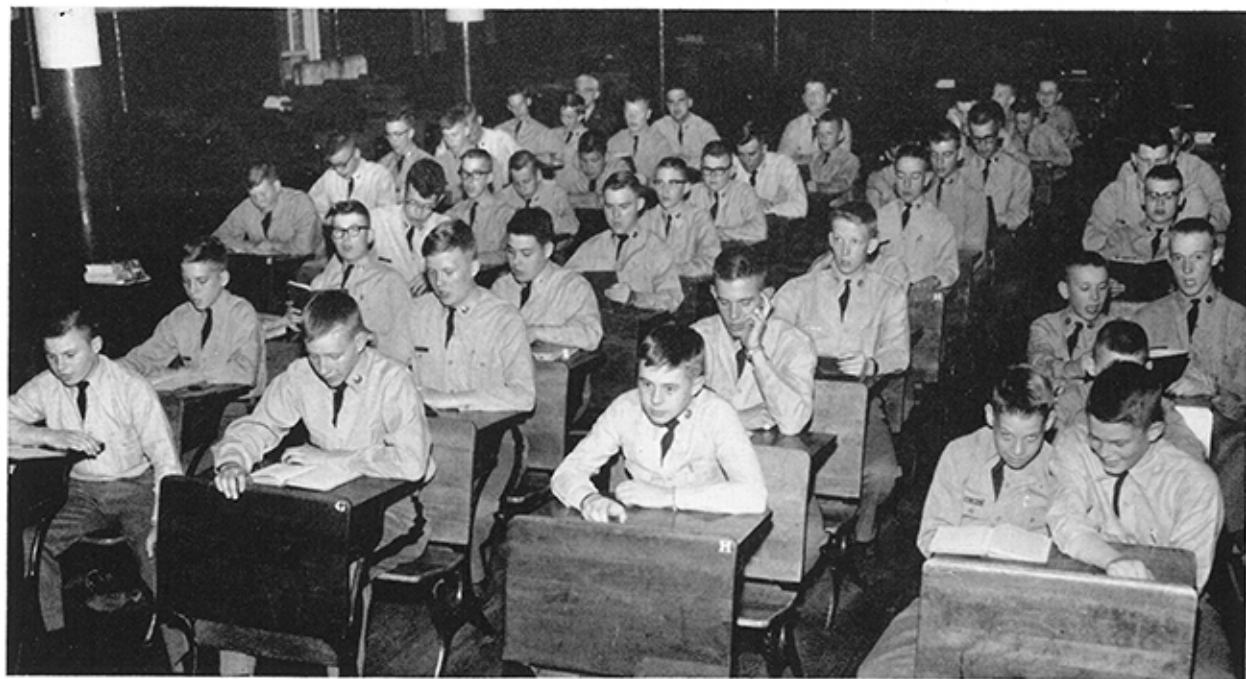

The cadets in the Y.M.C.A. try to live by the following pledge, repeated by every member upon joining the Y.M.C.A.: I pledge my best efforts to uphold the purpose of this organization, which is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character; to promote clean speech, clean athletics, clean scholarship, and clean living.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Columbia Military Academy chapter of the National Honor Society was established during the current school year. On Feb. 23, 1962, the members of the NHS chapter of East High School in Nashville, Tennessee, conducted the official installation ceremony performed in the school chapel.

The National Honor Society is based upon the following principles: Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service. Before being officially chartered, a prospective member must make the following pledge: I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of the National Honor Society to which I have been elected; I will be true to the principles for which it stands; I will be loyal at all times to my school; and will maintain and encourage high standards of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service.

Under the leadership of the faculty advisor, Major Eugene Towles, the Honor Society has set the standard for the entire student body. One of the highest honors a cadet can receive is to be admitted into this society.

The Dance Committee welcomes the Alumni to the Homecoming Dance.

The Dance Committee is the organization responsible for planning and decorating the Gym for the dances held throughout the year. Cadets on the Committee voluntarily spend time and effort preparing for each dance. Ideas for decorations and themes for the dances are the work of the members themselves. The Juniors on the Committee did all the decorating for the Commencement Ball in honor of the graduating Seniors.

Led this year by Captain Parker, the Committee has featured such popular bands as Tommy Knowles and the King's Men.

MARCHING BAND

The Marching Band is the workhorse of the music department at C.M.A. During dress parades, the Band functions as a military unit, providing music and cadence for the Cadet Corps. At football games and other campus assemblies, the Band serves as a spirit-raising group.

But the duties of the Marching Band do not end with campus functions. The marching group makes many public appearances throughout the school year, such as performances in the annual band contest, Christmas parades, military day parades, and the Cotton Carnival in Memphis, Tennessee. Finally, the Marching Band is the group from which the Concert Band members are chosen. Probably no other group at C.M.A. serves in as many capacities as does the Marching Band.

Company Commander David D'Armond and Drum Major Roy Mallady discuss a performance with Band Director Captain Parker.

A yearbook is meant to be a review of the people and activities of a school term; such is the 1962 RECALL. In the RECALL, the people, activities, achievements, and society of campus life are depicted in pictures.

The goal of the 1962 RECALL Staff was to produce a distinctly different and interesting book. The cadet who was responsible for accomplishing this aim was Editor-in-Chief Lynn Guess, under whose direction the 1962 RECALL was written, edited, and compiled. The Faculty Advisor was Captain Lawrence Lee.

Staff members Lee Denton and Oz Finne look on as Capt. Lee and Editor Lynn Guess extract ideas from annuals.

BUGLE CALL

The Bugle Call, the official publication of Columbia Military Academy, presents in each issue a roundup of all activities and phases of life at C.M.A.

Each issue is dedicated to informing the students and the faculty of the various activities of school teams and groups.

Major R. C. Ford, faculty advisor, has done much toward improving the quality and variety of the paper. Due to his diligent work and expert supervision, this year's Bugle Call has become the finest school paper in the history of C.M.A.
