THE 1968 RECALL

"A man's real possessions are his memories
In nothing else is he rich in nothing else is he poor."

ALEXANDER SMITH

Columbia Military Academy, Columbia, Tennessee

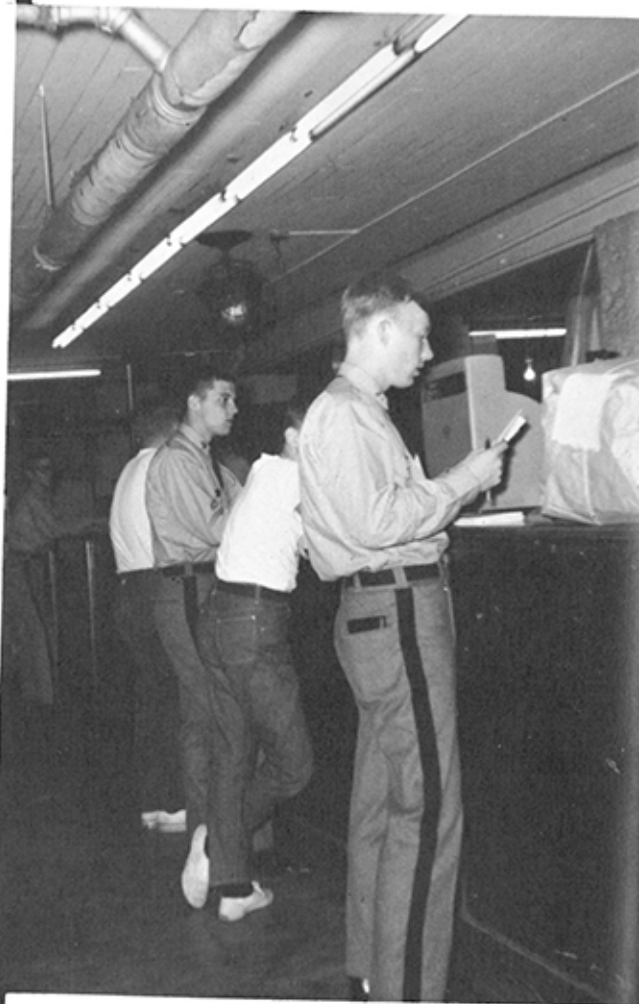

Volume xxvi

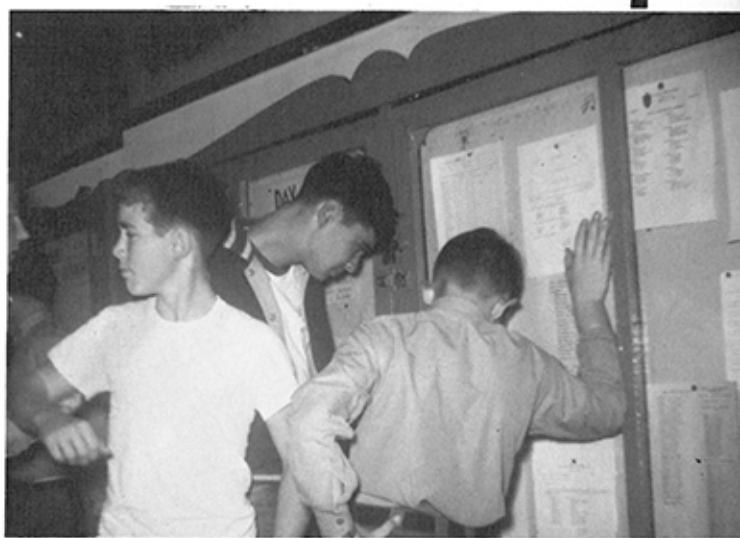

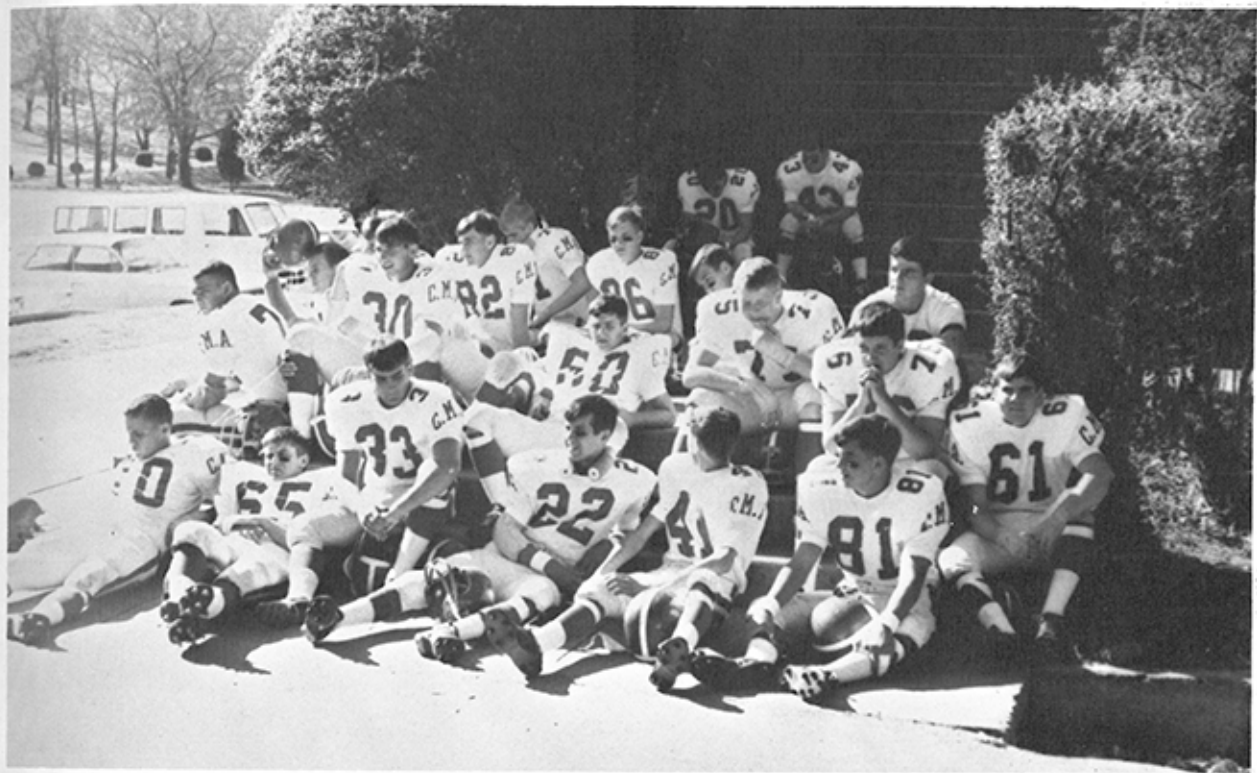

“Fine words I wonder where you stole them. The wisdom of the wise and the experience of the ages may be preserved in quotations.”

Disraeli

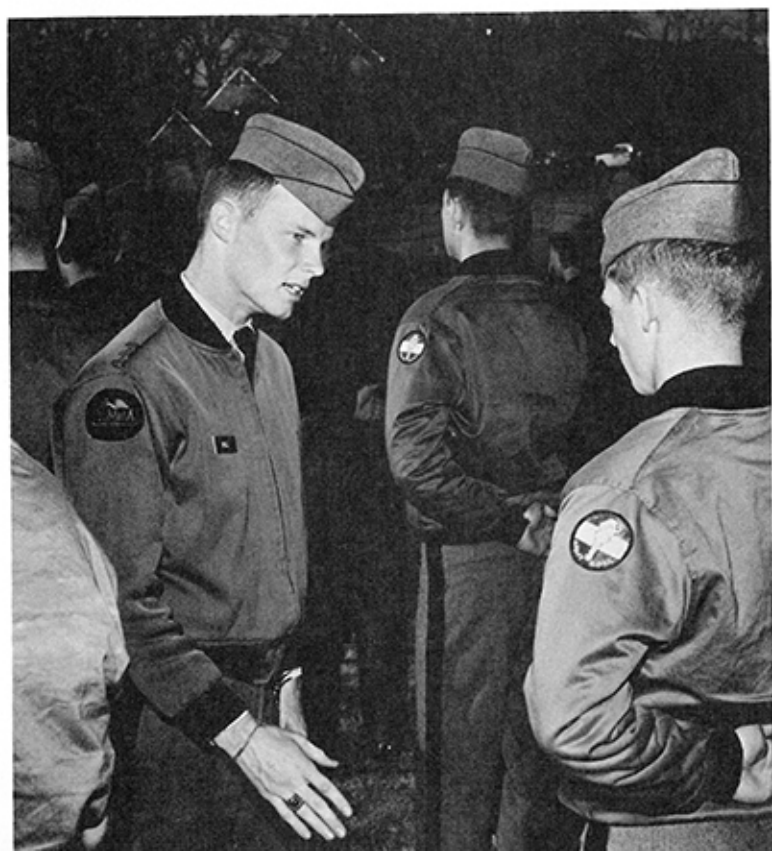

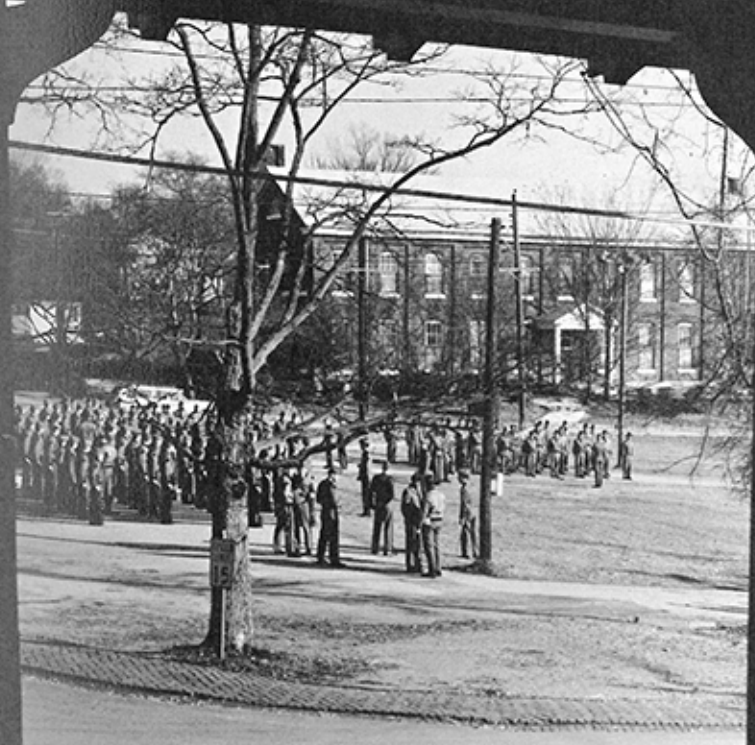

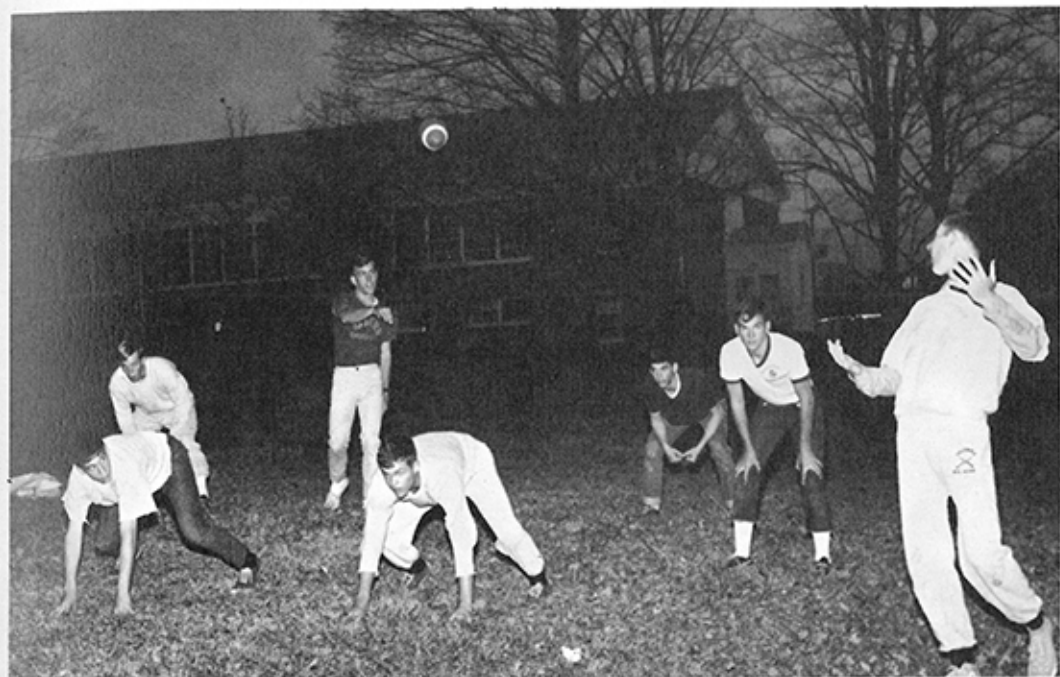

1968 has been, for the departing Seniors, a year to remember. It is our last year in high school. Next year we must face the trials of college armed with the knowledge and experience gained at C. M. A. We are leaving the walls of C. M. A. behind us and setting out to accomplish the goals we have set for our future. Most of us feel that this Senior year has been one of the most rewarding in our lives.

As the year began the new officers began the laborious task of breaking-in the new cadets. The new S. A. I. took over. There were several differences in the school this year. Some were good. Some were not so good. Bullring was more difficult, which almost everyone eventually found out. There was more drill than last year. Spirit seemed to be a little low. But there were good things, among them the new lounge completed in the Science Building with many of the comforts of home and granting of room privileges to Seniors.

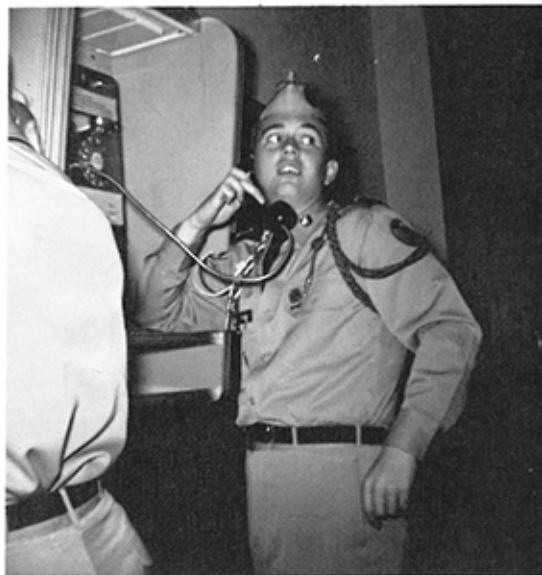

Homecoming came. Sweet victory and seeing those from home made life a little more bearable for all. The next two months were dull.

Everyone looked to Christmas. When Christmas arrived everyone seemed to forget their petty grievances and went home happy.

As the student body returned from Christmas vacation they faced the "Valley of the Shadow of Exams". There were successes and failures but everyone was happy to be finished.

The second semester started and work seemed lighter as it always does after exams. The days until Spring were slowly marked off.

With the Sweetheart Dance and the arrival of spring, the year had grown short. Many had received their college acceptance, others were still undecided. Yet much remained to be done. "G. I." and Military Weekend remained for a demonstration of our military capacity and achievement.

Senior Invitations were sent out, a sign that the end was near. Finals decided who would make it and who would not. Then the Senior Dance and the long awaited graduation came. We said good-bye to our friends and to those who had helped us. C. M. A. became a pleasant memory.

DEDICATION

Cigar and all, Captain Tom Jones is one of the most legendary characters on the C. M. A. campus. Capt. Jones has the respect of all cadets who have known him, not only for his finesse as a teacher but also for his coaching ability.

In addition to instructing freshman English, Capt. Jones is the line coach for the football team, and has worked with the Bulldog team since 1954.

Coach Jones spent his high school days at Dupont High School in Nashville, Tennessee. He is a graduate of Tennessee Technological University in Cookeville, Tennessee.

Aside from his duties on the football field and in the classroom, Coach Jones is the faculty officer in charge of Lee Barracks, a dormitory which is noted for being ruled with a mighty hand. At one time two faculty officers resided in this barracks; however, Jones is currently the only faculty officer—and this situation also carries a legend. Another faculty officer who lived there reported the barracks was so quiet “that even the roaches wore tennis shoes.”

“Governor” (usually pronounced Govnar) as he is often called by members of the faculty, is one of the most interesting lecturers on the campus. Students and faculty can be observed outside his classroom eaves-dropping on his lectures. His “spoof” is endless and furnishes pleasure to all. But despite the fun in class, Capt. Jones demands much effort from his students. He is rated by every student who has had him as one of the best teachers they have ever had.

Coach Jones and his wife, Judy, have three children, Connie, Vivian and Greer. They also have one grandson.

No comments on Coach Jones would be complete without mentioning his “Yul Brenner” hair-style, which has been the topic of much conversation. When Coach Jones is asked about his hair style, he confesses to rolling his hair on “spoolies.”

Few people can claim the honor of offering humor while maintaining discipline, honor and respect in the pursuance of their life’s vocation, but Capt. Jones can and does. For this reason and because of his esteemed contributions to C. M. A. during the last fifteen years, the 1968 RECALL Staff proudly dedicates this annual to Capt. Thomas G. Jones.

FOREWORD

The 1968 RECALL Staff would like to recognize the people, without who's aid, this year's RECALL would not have been possible. During the course of the year, these people devoted many, countless hours in helping prepare this annual for publication.

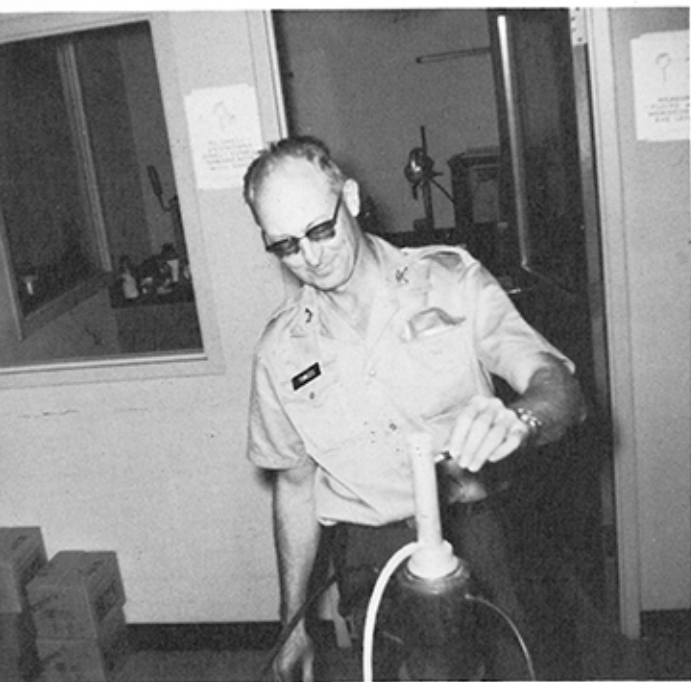

First of all, we would like to thank Mrs. David N. Radabaugh, who spent hours typing, proof-reading, gathering material and offering valuable suggestions. The school secretaries, Mrs. Tom Grimes, Mrs. Patterson and Mrs. Kirby Howell typed for us and offered any other assistance, that they could. Mrs. M. F. Gilchrist helped to obtain much of the pictorial matter, that we needed. Also, Lt. Col. F. S. Karner aided, not only the RECALL, but all the student activities.

The RECALL Staff wishes to salute these persons for their interest in the activities of the student body.

BUGLE CALL

The Bugle Call, Columbia Military Academy's official newspaper publication, is published once a month for the cadets at the Academy.

Editor of the 1967-68 Bugle Call is John D. Gruber, a senior from Louisville, Kentucky. Sectional editors include Earl L. Bell, Feature Editor and Tommy Glogower, Sports Editor. Business manager for the newspaper is Charles Anderson.

Being on the paper staff carries the responsibilities of interviewing cadets and faculty members, attending important meetings, clubs, and athletic events; writing information in proper journalism style; proof-reading newspaper galleys; closely checking the final proof copy; and delivering the papers to the cadets.

The Bugle Call mailing list includes over 350 names of parents, friends, and other schools. Cadets mail these papers out to individual subscribers on the day of publication.

Faculty advisor for the newspaper is Mrs. David N. Radabaugh.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club at C. M. A. is made up of cadets who spend a large part of their time working in the library. The faculty advisor is Mrs. Stevenson.

This year the Library Club had a special project. They initiated a campus-wide drive to gather articles to be sent to a recent C. M. A.

graduate in Vietnam for Christmas. They were very successful in their endeavor.

The officers for the library club are: Bob Reid, President; Tom Arend, Vice President; Larry McKaig, Secretary; Eddy Edenfield, Treasurer; Barry Misner, Publicity.

DANCE COMMITTEE

The Dance Committee has the enormous task of making the arrangements for the three formal dances at C. M. A. and decorating the gymnasium before each dance. The dances for which they are responsible are the Homecoming Dance in October, the Sweetheart Dance in February, and the Commencement Dance in May. These cadets spend many long hours of hard work in the days before each dance decorating the gym. They must be creative, for they decorate the gym in a unique way for each dance. But there is dirty work involved in their jobs, too. They must remove the decorations and clean the gym after each dance.

The chairman of the Dance Committee this year is Randy Pyron. He and his committee are to be commended for the excellent work they have done this year.

The fighting C. M. A. Bulldogs posted a 3-5-1 record in competition this year. Despite their over-all record, the Bulldogs showed the determination of a winner. The C. M. A. victories came over Darlington, at Homecoming, Columbia High School of Decatur, Georgia, and the University of the South "B" Team. The losses came from T. M. I., McCallie, Riverside, Castle Heights, and Murray State "Frosh".

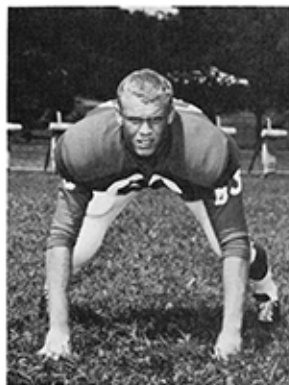

The only tie of the season came from the sternest of the season—Baylor. The Bulldogs erected a solid defense that contained highly favored Baylor. Neither team crossed the goal line. The 1967 Bulldogs were under new Head Coach Brud Spickard. He was assisted by Tom Jones, Jim Meyers, Wayne McDaniels and Ed Agee.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

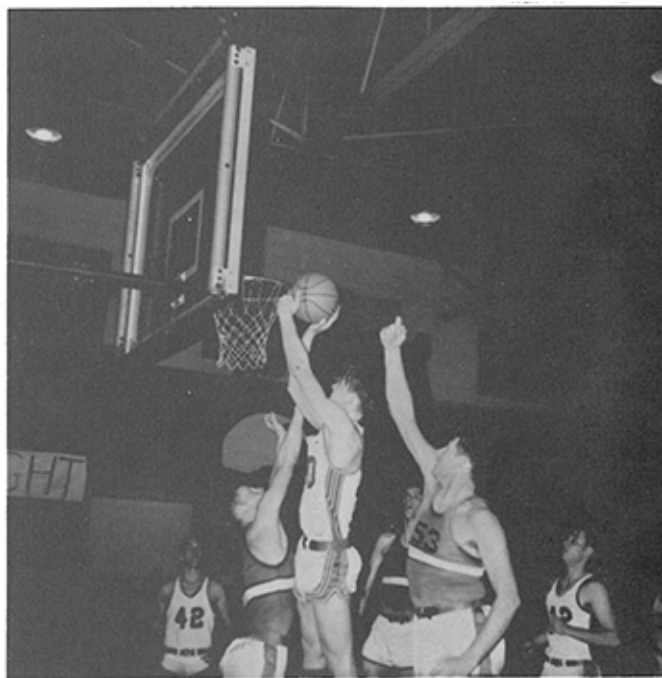

The Varsity Basketball line-up began with George Miles and Karl Witt, both first string guards. Miles, a post graduate, was an awesome shot from the outside and held top place in the foul shooting percentages. Witt, a sophomore, was high scorer in several games.

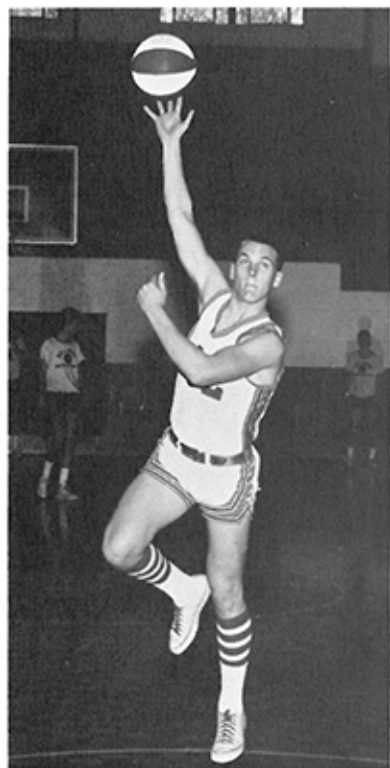

Tom Talbot and Ralph Chapman were the starting forwards. Both hold points-per-game averages in the double figures and Chapman was a consistent high scorer with Talbot running a close second.

Nick Owens and Bill Edwards both started as centers. Edwards moved from second string to press strongly as top rebounder and was a consistent scorer.

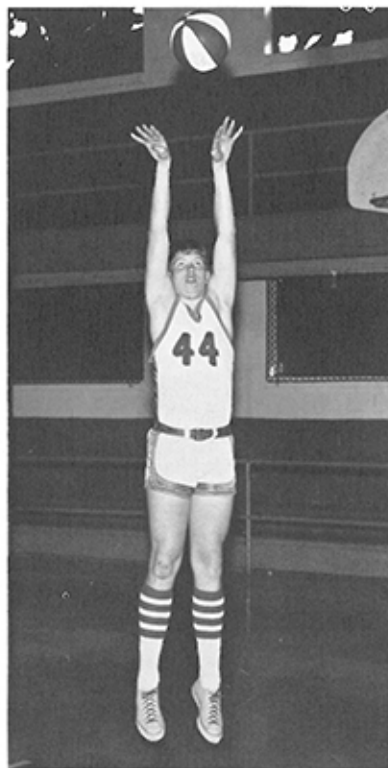

On second string were Gary Spencer and Ty Wilkinson, both guards.

The Varsity Team finished the season with a 2-21 record. Major William B. Wade is coach of the group.

"B" TEAM BASKETBALL

C. M. A.'s "B" team basketball has met with a little more successful season than has the Varsity.

Top scorers for the "B" team are brothers, John and Carl Williams, both starting guards for C. M. A. Bill Burgen is the top rebounder. Joe Cantley is considered top floor man.

Coach of the "B" team is Captain Moore

Landers, an ex-Bulldog court man. While playing for head basketball coach, Captain Bill Wade, Landers was All Mid-South and Most Valuable Tournament Player in 1960.

Under the prowess of Coach Landers, the "B" team shows promise for an improved Varsity for next year.

SOCCER

When Soccer season hit the campus this year, Coaches Jim Cecil and Lyle Hampton started talking about the games' "dominant genes," and the Cadet Corps found themselves receiving a good education in the history of the sport.

The Coaches clarified their point by saying that soccer has "genes of both football and basketball, although not the child of either."

Soccer is a fast moving sport constantly involving contact. It is in its fourth year on the C. M. A. campus and gaining in popularity and strength every year.

Captains of this year's team are John McBrayer and Ken Starnes.

After finishing up a very successful year, the Wrestling Team contends that seven cadets, in particular, definitely lended their best to aid the grapplers in all competition.

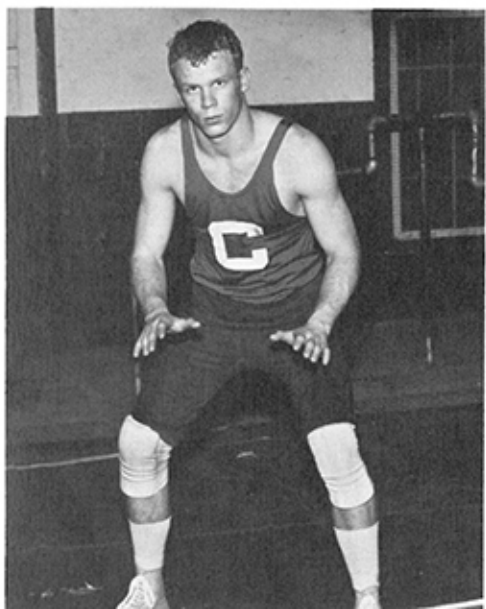

Members of the group who aided the Team in Mid-South competition are Ronnie Wash, Tony Cothron, Marshall Thrash, Jeff Anderson, Doug Anderson, Frank Speer and Perry Hill.

The Wrestling Team practices in the "Little Gym," especially designed for wrestling. The average temperature in the gym is 95°, which is beneficial in keeping weight down — and weight is important in this athletic event.

Coached by Major Laurence Murphy, the wrestling Team finished their season on February 17.

With three returning players, the C. M. A. Golf Team hopes to have an improved season and to walk away with Mid-South Competition to be held in April.

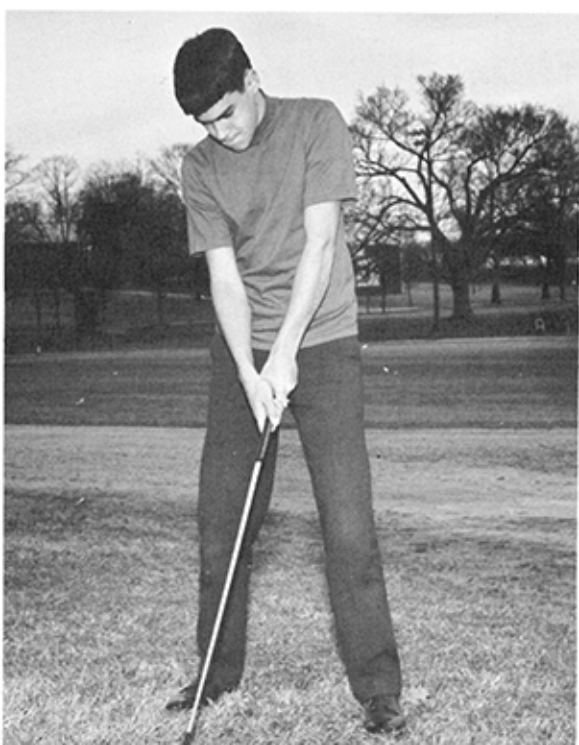

The Golf team competes on courses all over the Middle Tennessee area, using Bigby Hollow Golf Course as their home field. Bigby Hollow is a par 35, nine hole course.

Golf team coach is Major William B. Wade.

This year's Cross Country Team made a determined effort to take the Mid-South, but was hampered with a shortage of returning runners.

Being a member of the Cross Country Team requires many hours of hard work and practice, a bit of luck with the weatherman, and a very regimented schedule.

Lt. Col. Eugene S. Towles, coach of the Cross Country Team, has been working with this C. M. A. group for thirteen years. Captain of the team is Frank Griswold, a junior from McMinnville, Tennessee.

THE GOLD STAR DRILL TEAM

The Gold Star Drill Team is an organization composed of the outstanding drill cadets of Columbia Military Academy.

In order to be a member of the Gold Star a cadet has to be in good standing with the Commandants Office, the Military Office, and the Academic Office. He must be an expert in the art of drill, and must be able to work with and to cooperate with the other members of the team.

The Drill Team made such trips as the Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D.C., the Cotton Carnival in Memphis, Tennessee, various Christmas Parades and the Vanderbilt Drill Competition.

The Third National Bank of Nashville sponsored a Concert for the Band, Gold Star and Color Guard this year in Nashville, Tennessee.

EURIPIDES

MR. C. M. A.

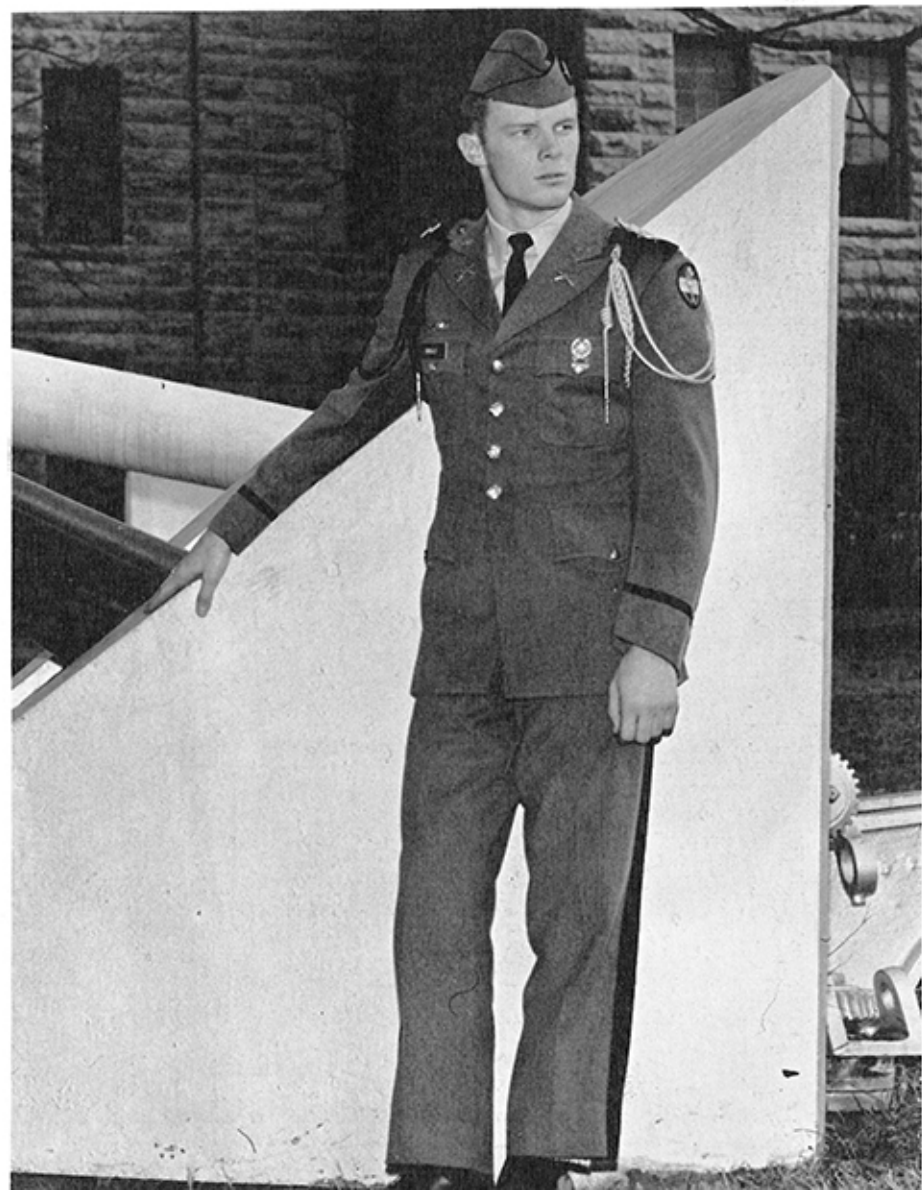

The very highest honor bestowed upon any member of the Corps of Cadets by the faculty and administration is the title of Mr. C. M. A.

David M. Briggs, who holds the rank of Cadet Lieutenant Colonel and is the Battalion Commander of Columbia Military Academy, was selected by the faculty and administration to be Mr. C. M. A.

Dave is a proud member of the Cadet Corps. After four years at C. M. A., he has achieved a great deal. Having a strong academic average and lettering in varsity Cross Country and Wrestling, he has done much to deserve the name Mr. C. M. A. Besides being a leader and a well admired member of his senior class, Dave is also knowledgeable in other fields. A few of his achievements are: Marksman with a rifle and pistol, top 10% of his military training, and a holder of the good conduct medal for four years. Dave is president of the Junior Civitan Club and of the Hi-Y.

The RECALL Staff is proud to announce David Marshall Briggs as Mr. C. M. A.

CMA HALL OF FAME

The Hall of Fame, like the Baseball Hall of Fame, is an honor bestowed upon six cadets for their achievements. To be eligible for the Hall of Fame, a cadet must excel in scholarship, leadership, school spirit and have the makings of a successful future.

This year's winners have been selected by the faculty for their all around achievement. The RECALL staff is proud to introduce the following cadets to the Corps of Cadets, faculty and administration.

Cadets selected to the 1967-68 Hall of Fame are: Cadet Lieutenant Colonel David M. Briggs, Cadet Captain Dawson S. Colvert, Cadet Lieutenant C. Michael Collins, Cadet Captain Curtis L. Hopfinger, Cadet Major Gary M. Hovis and Cadet Sergeant Randall H. Hudgens.

The RECALL Staff extends a sincere congratulations to these cadets.

SCHOLARSHIP RATINGS

Believe it or not, countless hours of studying (although not burning the mid-night oil, since taps blow at 10:00 p.m.) do pay off and they pay off for the man who best utilizes his "CQ" time.

Scholarship ratings are given to all cadets in the senior school who have an 86 or better average in each subject.

This rating was introduced into academic ratings during the presidency of Colonel C. A. Ragsdale, former president of C. M. A. Colonel Ragsdale felt that this rating would encourage the cadets to work harder. He set the goal at 86 because he felt that it should be put at the standards colleges require for entry.

There is only one academic rating superior to Scholarship and that is the rating of Cum Laude.

HONOR ROLL

If a cadet works, studies hard, and keeps his grades above 80, he will be rewarded with an Honor Roll rating.

Ratings of Cum Laude, Scholarship, and Honor Roll are released each month on the Headmaster's List. A semester Headmaster's list is published at the end of each semester and cadets who maintain an 80 or better average in each subject for the semester are given Honor Roll ratings for the semester.

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

All members of the National Honor Society constitute a very special campus organization—and a group well respected among the student body and faculty.

The organization consists of juniors, seniors, and post graduates who excel academically as well as in leadership qualities. The motto of the group is "Citizenship, Leadership, and Scholarship."

To be eligible for membership, a cadet must have an 85 or better academic average and be in the top ten per cent of his class. Students are selected for membership by the faculty and the criterion are leadership, academic excellence, and participation.

C. M. A.'s chapter of the National Honor Society was granted in 1961 and was solicited by Lt. Col. Eugene Towles, faculty advisor of the group.

Seated Left to Right: R. H. Hudgens, R. E. Reid, A. C. Jackson, L. E. McKaig. Standing: C. M. Collins, K. F. Starnes, R. T. Boyd, L. R. Adamson.

Junior School Activities

An innovation this year, the Junior Band made great progress. Capt. Deutschman, aided by senior band members, trained the new members from scratch. Capt. Deutschman placed much confidence in the success of the venture. He believes that he has started many new musicians for his future bands.
