Dedication

During his forty years of service to CMA, Colonel C. C. Wilhoite has found himself working in many capacities. He served as a dormitory advisor when the second floor of Main Building was a dormitory. For many years he served as the School Photographer and maintained all the students' permanent records. He has taught Mathematics, Spanish, and German. Colonel Wilhoite is presently the principal of CMA and tutors students in all subjects. Any student who passes through the Academic Office soon learns to expect a short joke or anecdote from Colonel Wilhoite, who is just as understanding a listener as he is an entertaining story teller. It is with deep respect that the 1971 RECALL staff dedicates this, their annual, to Colonel Wilhoite.

"To live in hearts we leave behind is not to die."

My first real reaction was probably fright. The school seemed to resemble a factory more than a school. Watching the first formation, I thought the students appeared more robot than human. Not until classes began did students emerge as individuals.

Academically, the school is the best I have attended because the classes are more personal. However, outside of academics, the school seems to be alienated from the rest of life. My life at school just does not seem to fit in with my life outside of school.

Maria Lynch

I feel qualified to write about bullring, in that experience is a good teacher; therefore, I should be very learned.

Bullring is CMA's disciplinary system—a system I don't think is quite perfected. I used to spend my time on bullring marching in circles (less than enjoyable) but just lately Bullring boys have been employed in more fruitful activities. I have taken part in clearing a fence, building an addition to a road, and constructing a garage; so in years to come as I drive by North Jackson I can remember the "good ole days" when I was working on that road instead of driving upon it.

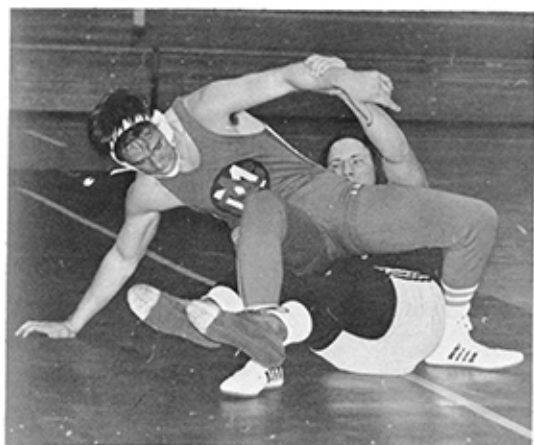

Bullring does have its good points though. For instance, all the "cool" people attend regularly. I'd be lost and friendless if it weren't for bullring. As a great place to meet people, it probably rates with the Hunca Munca Night Club of Puerto Rico. It also gives one a great feeling of involvement (it's my only extra-curricular activity) and that good ole school spirit. I'm assured that I've done as much work for CMA on bullring as any other individual in any position; so it must be a good institution.

Tommy Womack

One finds apathy as well as awareness among CMA students, just as one does anywhere, yet here the intelligent cadets seem to be more perceptive and independent thinkers than many of their counterparts in large public schools. Disregarding the exceptions, an ability to reason logically rather than merely to memorize prevails with our scholars.

Patricia Rasbury

I think CMA has been a good experience for me this year. Some things didn't go as well for me at first, but as time went on I managed to adjust myself and after that nothing came up that I couldn't deal with. This school is sort of a challenge, but once you accept it and try your best to make the most of it, it can and will be rewarding.

Kenneth Van Hook

This year the away-from-home "B" team basketball games were really fun. All of the fun was in the ride to the other schools and not in the games, since we only won three out of sixteen games. About the funniest thing that happened was when the back doors of the van which we rode in came open on a busy street in Nashville. All of the equipment fell out right in the middle of the traffic. It was a scramble getting it all back in but, somehow we managed. All of us had our laughs, including Coach Forehand, who I think deserves a trophy just for putting up with us.

Marc Mullis

Boys in a dorm at CMA
A diverse array of character types.
Social standing established the very first day,
By muscle, wit and/or number of stripes.

Spare time in a dorm
With one's circle of peers,
Makes friends out of strangers
And winks out of years.

With privacy gone
One must learn to evolve,
To the dorm regulations
For they are the law.

But as time passes
A dorm becomes home.
By second semester
All secrets are known.

And when May comes around Bringing summertime
cheer,
They will think of the dorm
With the good times last year.

Jack Mussett

Brace yourselves, fellow citizens of our elite society, for an informative Fantastic or Real account of activities by the notorious underground organization T. N. U. C.—Terrorist Network for the Upgrading of Cadets. The organization, according to the latest specialist on the case, has been responsible for a series of bombardments and the painting of strange symbols on our beloved implements of peace. The latest reports seem to point to conspiracies for the relief from the little torture room underneath the business office of certain hair-depriving implements of torture. Also, new agents known as 36-26-36 and 37-25-36 are said already to be injecting corruption into our blissful life. T.N.U.C. seems to be fairly inactive lately; so the directors of this wonderful society may now have a period of tranquility until T.N.U.C. again attacks.

C. C. Davis

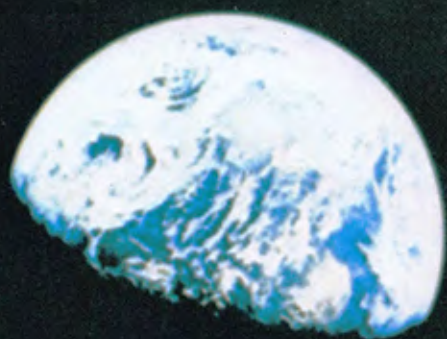

In the course of my last four years in this institution, I have never been more relieved of my tensions than I have at drill. It provides every cadet with an escape from this cruel environment. Each is provided with a now harmless implement of destruction that the cadet may aim at those people who besiege him with hell and damnation. He can imagine himself killing all of those elite members of this merciless oligarchy. Drill, then, is a marvelous thing. It appeases each cadet's hunger for the blood of those individuals who declare themselves deities and condemn their children.

Fred Zayas

Even if to many of us it may not seem to be, CMA is, in most respects, merely a microcosm of the world which we all face upon leaving this school. If one views CMA only superficially, this does not hold true. Never again, unless military service is in one's future, will one be faced with formations, drill, bullring, promotions, such a total lack of free time with which to do what one pleases, and everything else that goes along with a military academy. But every success and every problem one encounters in his years at CMA will again be met in the outside world. Failure, success, happiness, sorrow—all are found in equal measure both inside and outside CMA. Although life certainly assumes a different form in our unique, rather insular, society, it still contains the complete spectrum of human emotions and experience found throughout our world.

David Nicolai

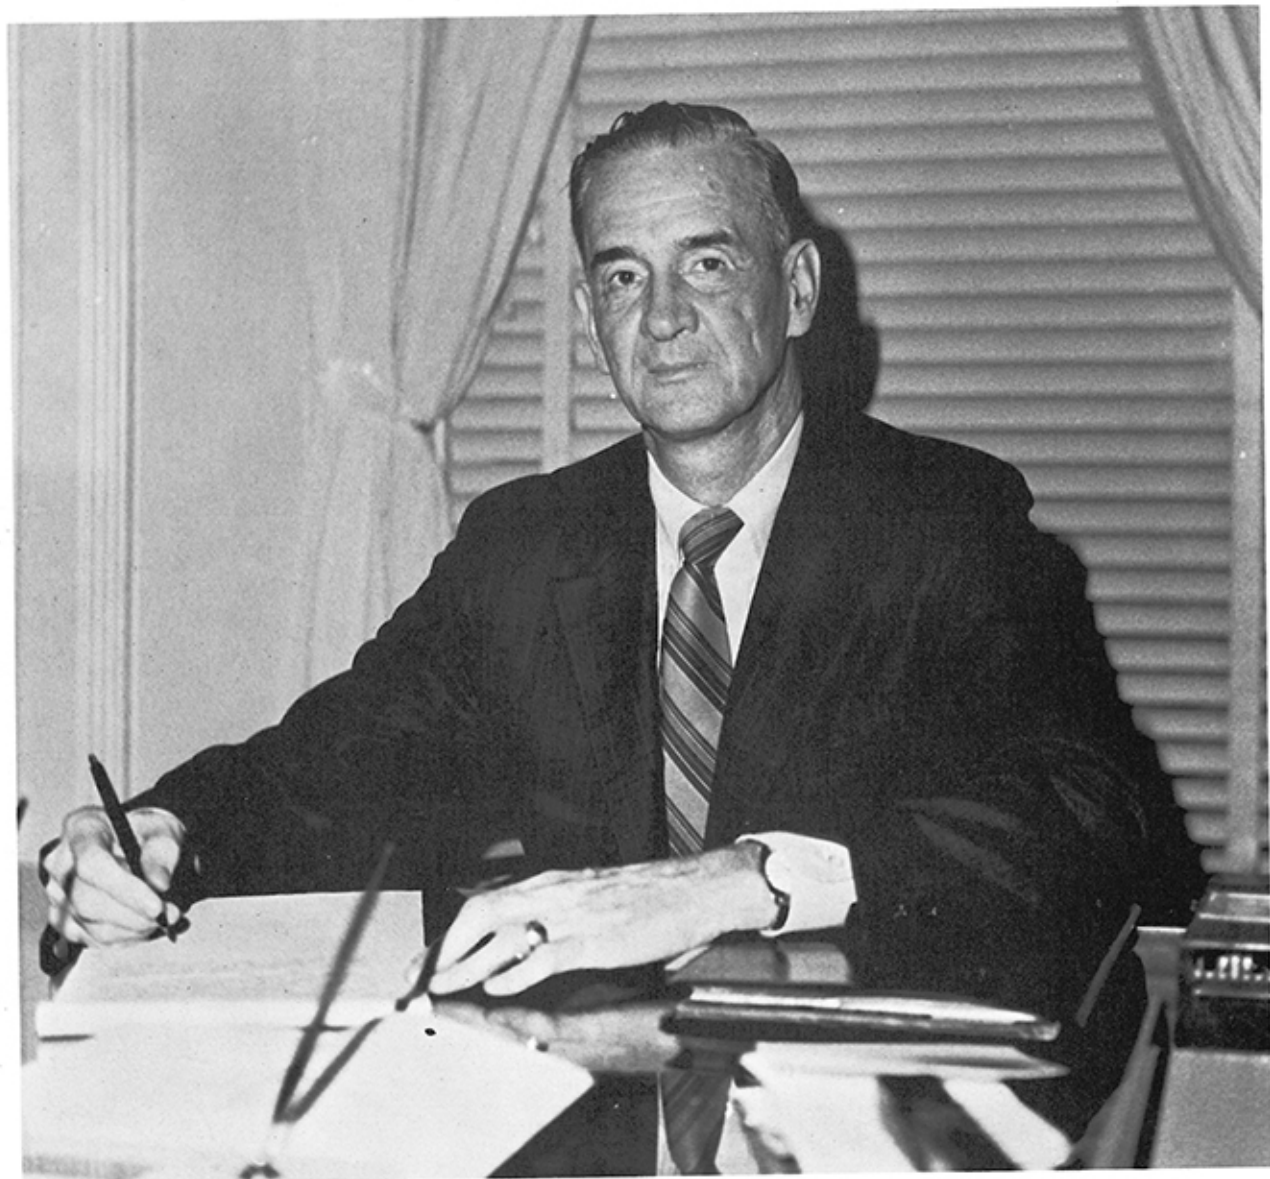

THE TWENTY-THIRD SPASM
CMA is my master, I fear to disobey;
It maketh me walk bullring;
It anointest my food with grease;
It burdenth me with demerits for discipline's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the rain and snow,
I feel no dampness;
For my regulation raincoat and combat boots protect me.
My commode runneth over.
Surely bullring and Ace will follow me all the days of my life,
And I will dwell at CMA forever.

Administration, Faculty, and Staff

Colonel E. Blythe Hatcher

President and Headmaster

Since Colonel Hatcher's arrival at CMA in the summer of 1970, he has served the faculty and student body of CMA well as our President and Headmaster. Colonel Hatcher was not an unfamiliar figure at CMA before serving in his present capacity; he had been associated with the Academy for eighteen previous years. He served as mathematics instructor from 1943 to 1961, as Assistant Commandant from 1951 to 1954, and as Commandant of Cadets from 1954 to 1961. Colonel Hatcher, who has received a B.A. and M.A. from George Peabody College for Teachers, served as the Dean of Students at Berry College in Mt. Berry, Georgia, from 1962 until his return to CMA.

We are honored to have Colonel Hatcher back and wish him the best of luck in the future.

Military

Military Department

Sergeant Major Alphonse Lambert, Major Richard A. Walterhouse, Master Sergeant Robert F. Allen, Sergeant First Class Donald Sorrell.

The Military Department at CMA is responsible for introducing the Cadet Corps to Junior ROTC. This is accomplished through the classes in military training which meet four days a week, and through drill.

Major Richard A. Walterhouse, the Senior Army Instructor, teaches the following MT subjects: Tactics, Leadership, and Marksmanship. Sergeant First Class Donald F. Sorrell teaches Small Unit Tactics, Map Reading, and Marksmanship. Master Sergeant Robert F. Allen teaches Introduction to ROTC, Courtesies and Customs, Military Teaching Methods, Communications, Weapons, and Methods of Instruction. Sergeant Major Alphonse J. Lambert teaches Tactics, First Aid, Weapons, Map Reading, and Military History.

Cadet Staff

It is the responsibility of the Cadet Staff to assist the Commandant, Major A. C. Howell, and the Military Department in the supervision of the operation of the entire Corps of Cadets. Each member of the staff has his own particular duty, which he is expected to perform with the utmost proficiency.

Heading the staff during the 1970-71 school year is the Battalion Commander, Cadet Colonel Chris Forgy. Other members of the Top Four are Major Jon Schermerhorn, Deputy Battalion Commander; Major Jones Barksdale, Battalion Executive Officer; and Major Frank Lawing, Adjutant and S-1.

Other members of this year's staff are Captain Nelson McGahee, S-2; Major Oliver Killough, S-3; Captain Dennis Crabtree, S-4; Captain Bob Dunnebacke, Junior School Supervisor; SGM Terry Briggs, Battalion Sergeant Major; MSG Gary Ledbetter, S-1 NCO; MSG Carl Orr, S-2 NCO; SFC Jimmy Bane, S-3 NCO; SFC Irby Atkinson, S-4 NCO; SSG Will Rainey and SSG Duke Barnes; Assistant Junior School Supervisors.

Armory Staff

The duties performed by the Armory Staff are supervised by MSG R. F. Allen, Military Property Custodian. The cadets on Armory staff, who are selected by MSG Allen, are led by students officers Ollie Killough and Dennis Crabtree.

The Armory Staff's duties include the reception, issue, and maintenance of all supplies issued to CMA by the U.S. Government. Aside from carrying out these responsibilities as they apply to all students, the Armory Staff provides additional assistance to the Rifle Team, the Gold Star Drill Team, and the Band.

Members of this year's Armory Staff are Irby Atkinson, Jimmy Bane, Kent Simpkins, Houston Crozier, Jack Dwyer, John Lyon, Keith Stewart, Steve Templeman, J. W. Morris, Gary Armor, David Lancaster, and Norman Anderson.

Frank Shippen, Will Rainey, Billy Pressnell, David Lambert, Sergeant First Class Donald Sorrell, Sponsor.

The 1970-71 CMA Rifle Team is led by team captain Bob Huffman and the faculty sponsor SFC Sorrell. To be a member of the rifle team, a cadet must be interested in entering marksmanship competition and have a fundamental knowledge of range safety techniques. The team works to promote marksmanship skills with respect to firearms safety.

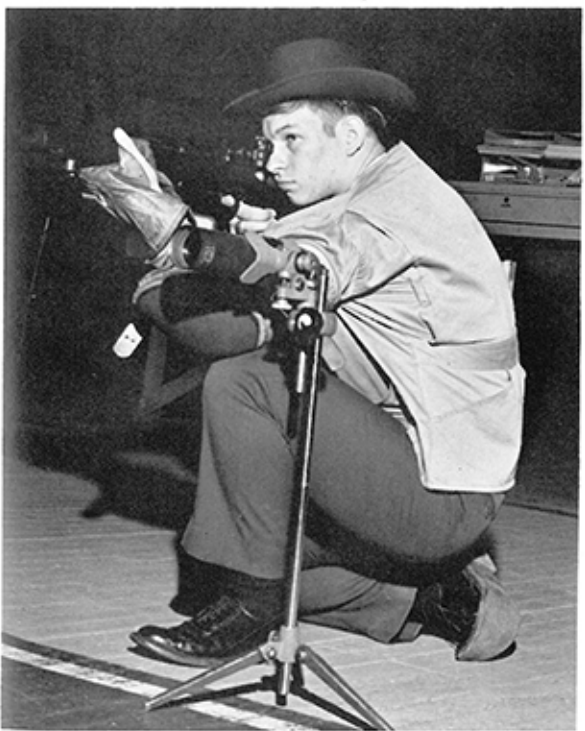

The team matched skills with ROTC and National Rifle Association teams in the surrounding area.

The highlight of the season was capturing first place in the Tennessee Trophy Match, in which all of the military academies of Tennessee participated.

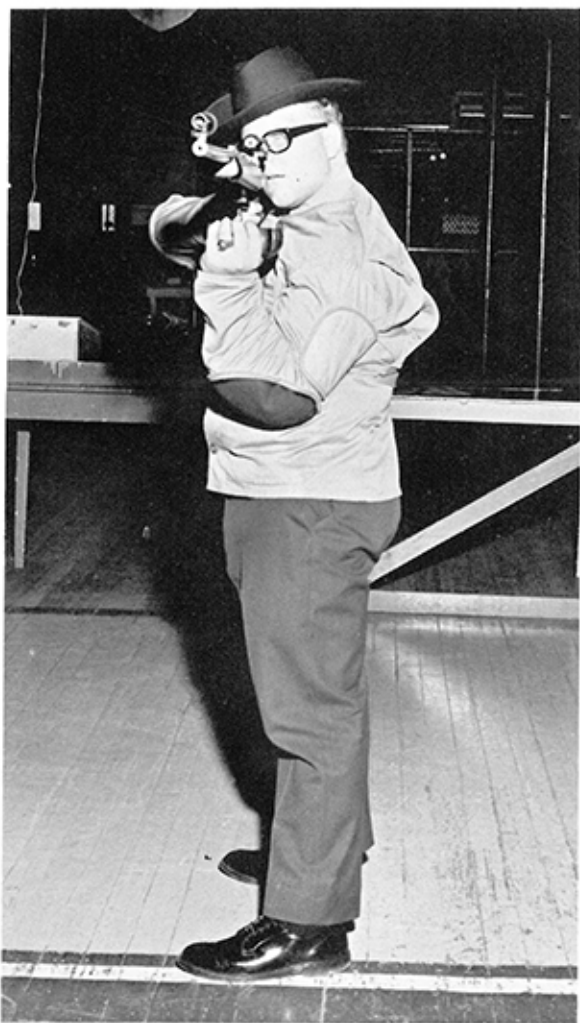

Jack Mussett and Bobby Bain are the co-captains. John Redmon is the publicity agent. The top five firers on this year's team are Bobby Bain, Bob Huffman, Jack Mussett, John Redmon, and Ricky Williams.

Gold Star Drill Team

Through their hard work and effort, the 1970-71 Gold Star Drill Team has equalled, if not surpassed, the CMA record of traditionally superior drill teams.

Under the expert command of Cadet First Lieutenant Craig Sweatman, the team performed at CMA during Homecoming, Parents' Weekend, and Military Weekend. The team participated in the Nashville Thanksgiving Parade, and the Columbia, Nashville, Mt. Pleasant, and Hohenwald Christmas Parades. The team entered the Vanderbilt Drill Competition and attended the Cotton Carnival in Memphis.

The faculty sponsor of the Gold Star Drill Team is SGM Lambert and the assistant commander is Jim Ford.

Color Guard

The 1970-71 Color Guard has proudly represented the school by displaying the American flag, the flag of the state of Tennessee, and the school flag of CMA. The Color Guard, commanded by Scott Strauch, has served CMA with distinction. They participated in the Nashville, Columbia, and Mt. Pleasant Christmas Parades. The Guard performed in the Vanderbilt drill competition and entered the White Station High School Performance in Memphis.

Each year the outgoing commander chooses his replacement, who in turn, chooses the other five members. Wyatt Jackson and Dee Rainey serve as the guards, Jim Ford as the caseer, and Charlie Foote and David Brown as the flag bearers.

Billy Miles completes a pass over the outstretched hands of a DuPont defender.

The CMA Bulldogs enjoyed another fine season of football in 1970. In their second year of TSSAA competition, they compiled a 6-4 record. The team played the usual tough schedule and again came out on top.

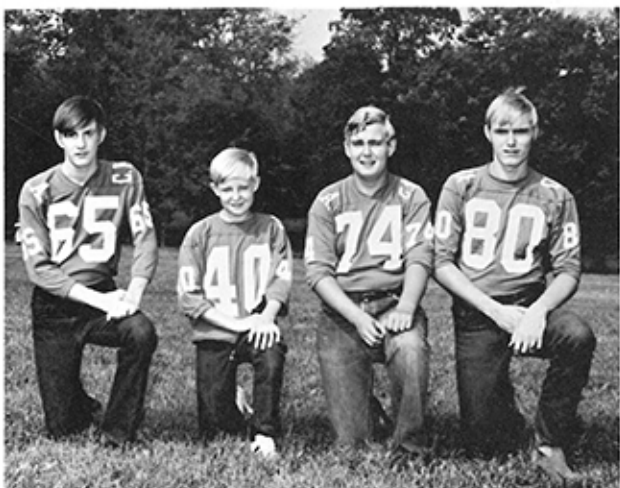

A win over nearby Lewisburg started the season off right for the Bulldogs, who were spurred on by the war cry, "Bellhops, and proud of it!" This theme carried them to five more victories over Centerville; Sparkman, Alabama; Livingston; Jackson South Side; and Nashville DuPont. The team operated on pride and ran on spirit.

The Bulldogs were led by Tri-Captains Steve McCarty, Billy Miles, and Henry "Chick" Cooper. There were ten other seniors on the squad who helped these captains lead the Bulldogs to the fine record they compiled.

Head Coach Pete Harris and assistant coaches Richard Howell, Mike Forehand, and Joe Graham were pleased with their team's effort. It was a long, hard season from August to November, but the team's hard work was rewarded by yet another in CMA's long list of successful football campaigns.

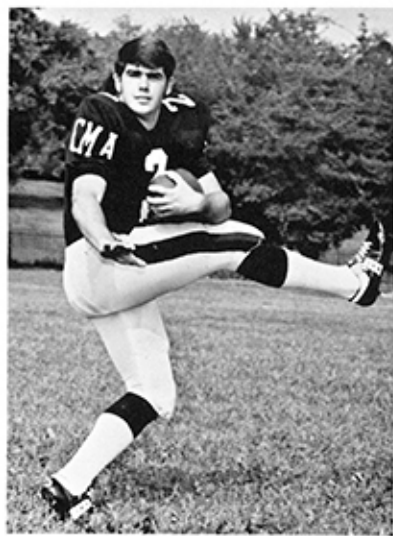

Coaches: Michael Forehand, defensive backs; Richard Howell, ends and offensive backs; Joe Graham, interior line; Pete Harris, Head Coach.

Managers: Mark Discher, Gene Barr, Mickey Morton, and Ricky Shelby.

The Bulldogs celebrate victory after walloping Jackson South Side by the score of 42 to 14.

Although the 1970-1971 basketball team failed to post a winning season, the Bulldogs provided many exciting moments for their fans. With fine team spirit and plenty of hustle, the team piled up plenty of points and rebounds as they compiled an 8-11 season record.

Coach Moore Landers was pleased with the leadership that Tri-Captains Billy Miles, Ricky Jody and Robbie Robinson provided for the younger members of the squad. With the return of plenty of fine talent next year, prospects for an improved season are good.

Soccer

This year CMA had the finest soccer team in the short history of this sport at CMA. The final record was 3-2-1, including wins over Father Ryan, Webb, and MBA.

The players have credited their fine season to their coaches Mike Forehand and Lyle Hampton. It was through the hard work of the coaches and returning members that a successful season was made possible for the team, which included many new players.

The team's three captains, C. C. Davis, Mark Adamson, and Scott Mullis, provided able leadership, as did the seven seniors, Hank Bonecutter, Ricky Davis, Robert Easter, Charlie Hagburg, Wyatt Jackson, Ricky Shelby, and W. D. Thompson.

With so many experienced players returning from this year's team, another great season appears to be in store for next year's soccer team.

Wrestling

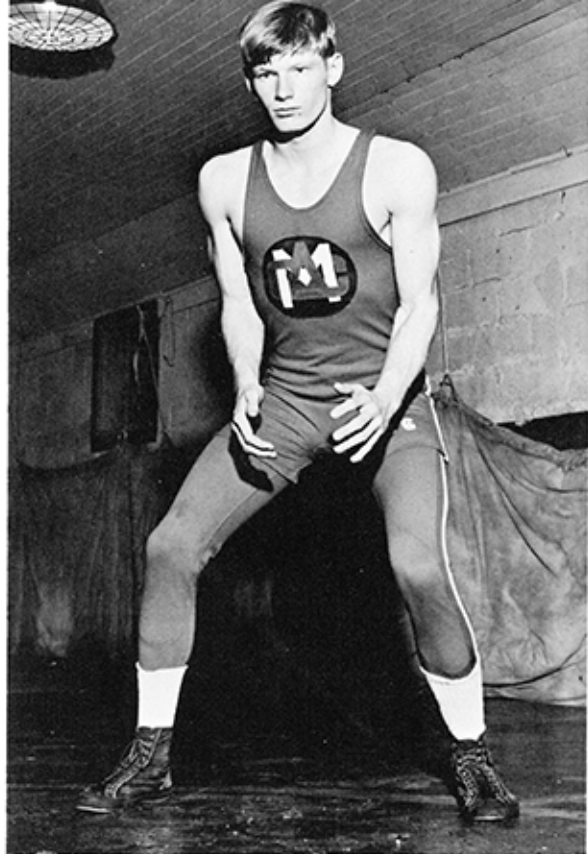

Coach Laurence Murphy and Assistant Coach Ronald Ross were pleased with the performance of this year's wrestling team. During their second year of TSSAA competition, the team was hampered by injuries and an overall lack of personnel. Seniors Alan Foster and Jimmy Blocker (Co-Captains) and Steve Downey provided the necessary leadership for the young, inexperienced team.

CMA was particularly proud to host the First District Tournament this year. The Bulldogs made an excellent showing in competition with seven other teams in the tournament. In their various weight divisions, the following team members captured these places: First Place—Jimmy Blocker; Second Place—Jeff Forgy and Steve Downey; Third Place—Bobby Chambliss and Jim Wallace; Fourth Place—Bob Huffman and Alan Foster.

In the Region One Tournament held at Hillwood High School in Nashville, Jeff Forgy captured fourth place, thereby qualifying for the State Tournament in Chattanooga, where Jeff did an admirable job representing the Bulldogs.

Special recognition goes to the managers, Norman Anderson, Richard Douglass and Larry Rowland who go unnoticed throughout the season but who lend the team so much valuable assistance.

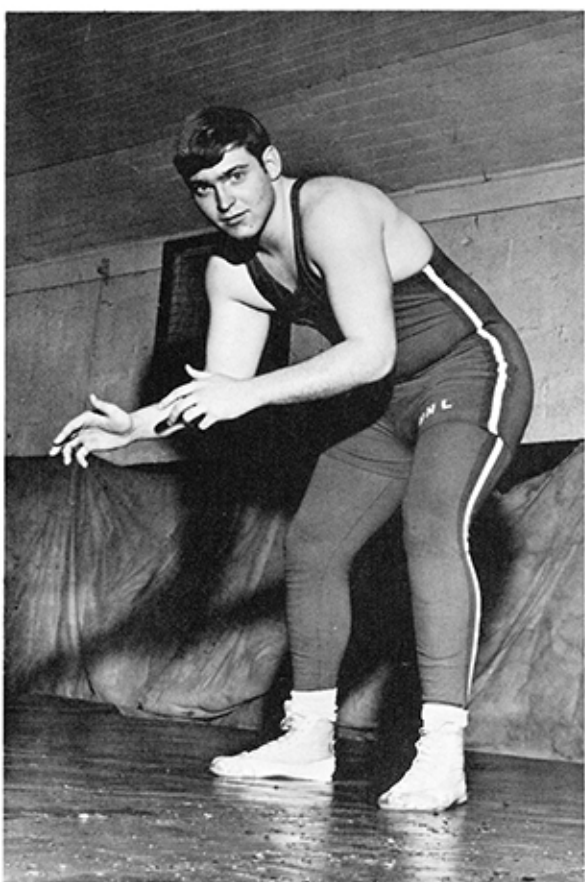

Having lost only three seniors to graduation, the wrestling team appears to have many winning seasons in store for them in the future.

Tournament Action

Activities

Junior Civitan

"Builders of Good Citizenship"

Junior Civitan is a constructive service club that offers the opportunity of fine fellowship and teamwork. A potential member of Junior Civitan must display leadership ability and scholastic achievement, coupled with a positive attitude and personality.

Junior Civitan members strive to serve both the school and community. Members operated the Snack Bar and concession stands. They sold school cushions, senior mugs, and senior calling cards. All these activities add up to an impressive record, but in addition to this, the members who felt some action should be taken to express their feeling concerning American prisoners of war sent letters to the President of North Vietnam.

Serving as president is Jon Schermerhorn; Vice-President, Chris Forgy; Secretary, Jones Barksdale; Treasurer, Carl Orr; Vice-President, Terry Briggs; Chaplain, Ollie Killough. Major Howell is the faculty sponsor.

Sitting: Jon Schermerhorn, Chris Forgy, Jones Barksdale.

Standing: Ollie Killough, Carl Orr, Terry Briggs.

Hi-Y

Sitting: J. W. Morris, C. C. Davis. Standing: Constantine Zouboukos, Jim Ford, Scott Strauch, Ricky Davis.

"I pledge my best effort to uphold the purpose of this organization which is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character, to promote clean speech, clean athletics, clean scholarship, and clean living."

The members of the Hi-Y believe that if they are to live up to this pledge, they must keep their club active. This year's members sold flowers at dances and sold student directories in order to finance the club's participation in conventions at Lebanon and Nashville.

Major Hampton is the faculty sponsor of the Hi-Y. C. C. Davis is the president; J. W. Morris is the vice-president; the secretary is Constantine Zouboukos; the treasurer is Ricky Davis; the Sergeant-at-arms is Scott Strauch; and the chaplain is Jim Ford.

Recall

This masterpiece of American high school journalism has been brought to you by the 1970-71 RECALL staff under the watchful eye of Major Graham Hann. All year the staff has heard complaints registered by students about the faults of previous annuals. In an effort to update the yearbook, we have tried several new formats, only to be deluged by wails of, "But they never did it like that before!" We would like to thank everyone for cooperating, but we do not want to be hypocritical!

The head editor, David Nicolai, (or buffoon, as he is affectionately known), and assistant editor, Mark Adamson, were selected by Major Hann. The rest of the staff is composed of happy harlequins who actually volunteered for jobs.

We would like to give special thanks to Mrs. Era Mai Howell for typing and layouts, Mrs. Mary Nicolai for typing, and Mrs. Kitty Pruett for special assistance

Larry Simons, Mrs. Kitty Pruett, Hank Bonecutter, Roger Moffat.

Bugle Call

Two years ago, Alan Brooks, a former CMA cadet, published CMA's first weekly news sheet, Babbling Brooks. Since that time, the news sheet has taken the name Bugle Call and is well on its way to becoming a CMA tradition.

In order to be a member of the Bugle Call staff, a student must be clever enough to successfully subvert the censorship of Colonel Thomas. The only other essential qualification is that a potential editor must have a 1930 copy of old radio jokes.

This year's editors are Larry Simons and Henry Bonecutter. The assistant editor is Roger Moffat and the sponsor is Mrs. Kitty Pruett, alumni secretary.

Dance Committee

The Dance Committee is open to any student who has a great deal of imagination and is willing to put plenty of hard work into making CMA dances memorable occasions. The efforts of the 1970-71 Dance Committee were rewarded by the student body's appreciation for the beautiful decorations the Committee provided for the Homecoming, Parents' Weekend, and Sweetheart Dances, and the Military and Commencement Balls.

The Dance Committee is sponsored by Mrs. Kitty Pruett, alumni secretary. The chairman is Jim Paull, and the co-chairmen are Larry Simons and Mark Discher.

Seated: Jim Paull. Standing: Mark Discher, Mrs. Kitty Pruett and Larry Simons.

Library Club

Woody Pettigrew, George Stuart, Mrs. Stephenson, Norman Andersen, Drue Garrison.

The Library Club is a service organization which helps students realize and fully appreciate all the facilities of the library, especially in the field of student research.

This year the Library Club took a trip to the Tennessee Fine Arts Center at Cheekwood, sponsored the Annual Book Fair with an Open House for the faculty, and served coffee at Parents' Weekend. At the end of the year students were rewarded for their hard work with an enjoyable picnic.

The faculty sponsor of the Library Club is Mrs. Fred Stephenson and the president is George Stuart. The other officers are: Woody Pettigrew, Vice-President; Norman Andersen, Secretary; and Drue Garrison, Treasurer.

reading by Mike Johnson; and sensitivity exercises and improvisations by the CMA Players. This delightfully different drama production was enthusiastically received by the audiences.

The Drama Club is sponsored by Captain Mel Black. Hank Bonecutter is this year's president; Frank Lawing is the vice-president; Carl Orr is the secretary; and David Nicolai is the treasurer.

Seated: Carl Orr, David Nicolai, and Frank Lawing. Standing: Hank Bonecutter.

Drama Club

The Drama Club works to provide entertainment for the school and community and to better acquaint the members with all the many phases of the performing arts. It is open to any student who is interested in any phase of drama.

In early November, members attended the Middle Tennessee State University production of A Lion in Winter. Some members entered the District IV Speech and Drama Contest at Murfreesboro in February. The club also attended The Imaginary Invalid at Columbia Central High School and The Marriage of Figaro at Columbia State Community College in April.

The highlight of this year's activities was the production of An Evening of Theatre in March. This "drama happening" featured Improptu, a one-act play featuring Hank Bonecutter, Steve Dial, Maria Lynch, and Donna Ryland; "The Pit and the Pendulum," a dramatic reading by Robin Layton; "Ole King Solomon," a humorous

National Thespian Society

"Act well your part; there all honor lies." This is the motto of the National Thespian Society. The advancement and improvement of the theatre arts in secondary schools is the primary objective of this organization.

To be eligible for membership, a student must earn ten points in theatrical activities. To earn these points, a student must participate in two full length plays of four one-act plays, and this participation should be in at least two areas, such as acting, business, or sets.

This year club members entered the Region IV Speech and Drama Contest at Murfreesboro and contributed to the production of An Evening of Theatre.

The faculty sponsor is Captain Mel Black. Club officers are Hank Bonecutter, President; Frank Lawing, Vice-President; Woody Pettigrew, Secretary; George Stuart, Treasurer; Carl Orr, Sergeant-at-Arms; Richard Mussett, Projects Chairman.

Tri-M

Tri-M is an honorary musical fraternity. The CMA chapter is affiliated with the national Tri-M organization. The club is sponsored by Major Frazier. Student officers are Jon Schermerhorn, President; Larry Simons, Vice-President; Doc Whitaker, Secretary-

Tary-Treasurer; and John Reed, Historian. Tri-M serves only as a means of recognizing musical ability in CMA students and does not sponsor any projects or activities.

Seated: Jon Schermerhorn, President; Larry Simons, Vice-President; John Reed, Historian; Doc Whitaker, Secretary-

Treasurer. Standing: Mark Adamson, Rickie Reeves, Mac Greene, Hans Faulhaber, Kevin Simons.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

Kneeling: Bob Dunnebacke, Duke Barnes. Standing: Hank Bonecutter, Billy Miles, and Frank Lawing.

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes, sponsored by Major Lyle Hampton, serves to promote a Christian spirit and outlook to its members and anyone with whom they come in contact in athletics or everyday life. The main activity of the club this year was the tutoring of disadvantaged elementary and junior high students who are unable to receive help with their schoolwork at home.

The FCA is open to any senior, junior, or sophomore who participated in a varsity sport. Serving as student officers are Frank Lawing, President; Duke Barnes, Vice-President; Hank Bonecutter, Secretary-Treasurer; Bob Dunnebacke, Bulletin Chairman; and Billy Miles, Project Chairman.

Features

Mr. CMA Frank Lawing

Each winter the administration, faculty, and staff of CMA select the one student they feel embodies the qualities of the ideal cadet to be named Mr. CMA. This cadet must exemplify high moral character, outstanding leadership ability, and a true sense of dedication to CMA.

It should come as no surprise, therefore, that this year Cadet Major Loyd Frank Lawing, Jr. was elected to this high honor. Although Frank has only attended CMA for two years, he has compiled a record equaled by few cadets. Besides conscientiously performing the duties of Adjutant, Frank is active in many school activities. He has been a valuable member of both the varsity football and track teams. As a junior, Frank served as vice-president of the Christian Athletes, and was elected president of the FCA during his senior year. He is also an active member of the Drill Team, Junior Civitan, Dance Committee, National Thesopian Society, and the Drama Club, of which he is the vice-president. Frank is also the Sports Editor of the 1971 RECALL. For two years he has earned a scholarship rating. He has received both Good Conduct and Marksmanship medals, and was elected "Most Military" by the senior class.

It is obvious to the CMA student body that their teachers made a wise choice in selecting Frank Lawing as this year's Mr. CMA.

Hall of Fame

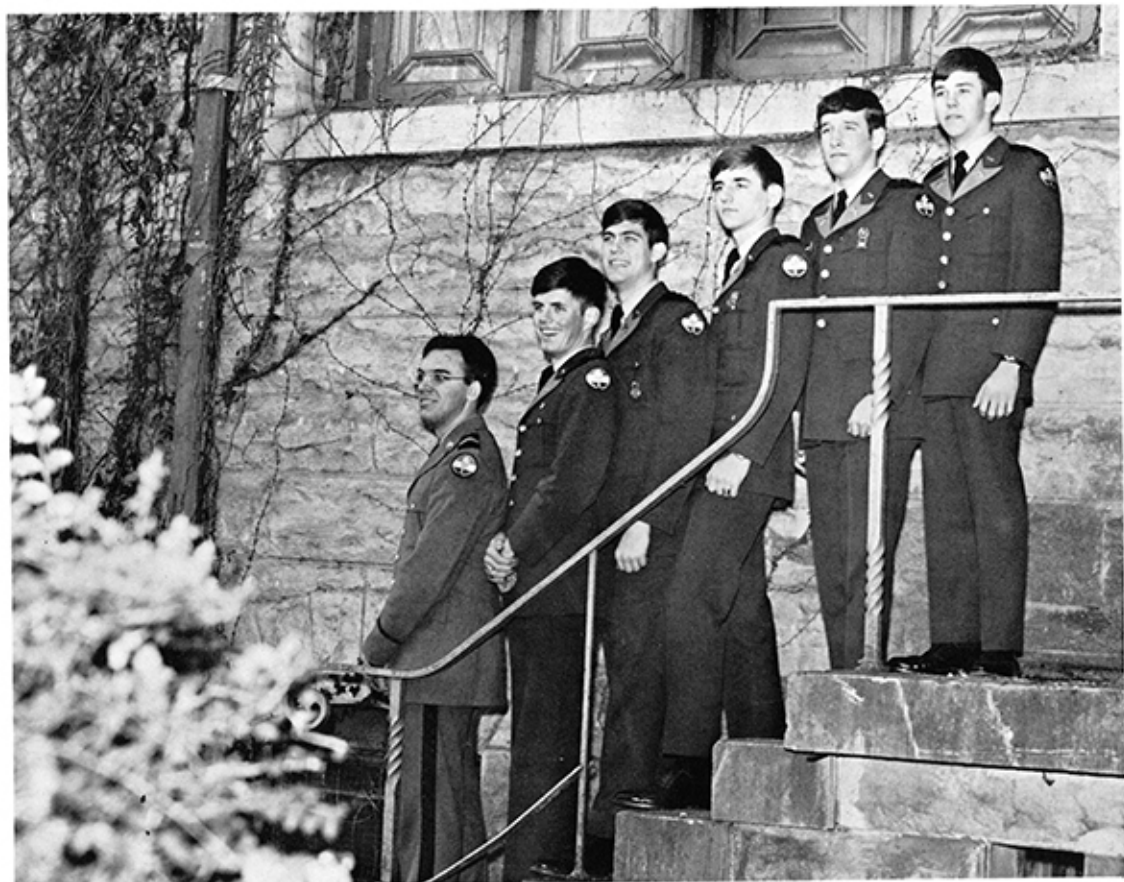

At the mid-term of their senior year, six outstanding cadets are elected by the administration, faculty, and staff of CMA to the Hall of Fame. Election to the Hall of Fame is based on initiative, citizenship, character, scholarship, leadership, and, above all, the student's contribution to CMA. Elected to the 1970-71 Hall of Fame are: Bob Dunnebacke, Chris Forgy, Ollie Killough, Billy Miles, David Nicolai, and Jon Schermerhorn.

Bob, who has been a class officer for four years, is the salutatorian of the class of 1971. He is a member of the National Honor Society and FCA, and has played varsity track, golf, football, and wrestling.

Chris is a member of the National Honor Society and is vice-president of the Junior Civitan. Besides being this year's valedictorian, Chris is also a National Merit Finalist and will be included in this year's edition of Who's Who in American High Schools.

Ollie serves as chaplain of the CMA Junior Civitan Club and as district treasurer for the club. He was named a superior MT-3 cadet, and has been awarded three Good Conduct Medals.

Billy has played three years of varsity football, baseball, and basketball. He has served as captain of the football and basketball teams this year. Billy is a member of the National Honor Society.

David is the editor of the 1971 RECALL, and is a member of the Junior Civitan, Drama Club, and National Honor Society. He is a National Merit Finalist, and has also been named to Who's Who in American High Schools.

Jon, who was a member of the band for three years, served as the Drum Major during his junior year. He has also been a member of the Junior Civitan and Tri-M for three years, and serves as president of both these organizations during this school year. Jon has received a First Class Musician Award.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

Leading the class of 1971 academically are Chris Forgy and Bob Dunnebacke. On the basis of their work during their junior year and first semester of their senior year, Chris was named valedictorian and Bob salutatorian.

Cadet Col. Forgy of Little Rock, Arkansas, has headed his class throughout his four years at CMA, and has won numerous medals for the excellence of his academic work. Although Chris has served as Battalion Commander of the 1970-71 Cadet Corps, he has found time to be an active member of the National Honor Society and to serve as vice-president of the Junior Civitan. Chris was also awarded the honor of election to the 1970-71 Hall of Fame.

Cadet Captain Dunnebacke, of Mt. Pleasant, Tennessee, has been an exemplary cadet during his six years at CMA. Bob, who has served as the 1970-71 Junior School Supervisor, has also won a number of medals for his outstanding scholastic achievements. Not only a top student, Bob has been a valuable athlete, having participated in varsity track, golf, football, and wrestling. For four years, he has served as a class officer. Bob is a member of the National Honor Society and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes. It is not hard to understand why his classmates chose Bob as "Best All-Round," or why the faculty elected him to the 1970-71 Hall of Fame.

Academic Excellence

The administration and faculty of CMA believe that students who excel academically should be recognized for their achievement. To achieve this goal, the school honors scholastically superior students by rating them in three groups: Cum Laude, Scholarship, and Honor Roll.

Cum Laude is the highest scholastic rating a CMA student may receive. Based on a four-point quality system, with an additional point for honors courses, a student with a minimum of a 3.75 quality point average qualifies for a Cum Laude rating.

A student with an average of 3.00 or above qualifies for a Scholarship rating, and a student with a 2.50 average or above is eligible for Honor Roll Rating.

The National Honor Society, sponsored by Col. Hatcher, is an honorary organization. Members are chosen by a five-man faculty committee. Eligibility for membership is based on scholarship, character, and contribution to the school. The National Honor Society must not be composed of more than ten percent of the senior class, five percent of the junior class, and two percent of the sophomore class. Sophomores are only eligible for provisional membership. The club serves as a means of recognizing academically superior students rather than functioning as an active service club.

Homecoming 1970

Under the direction of Colonel Thomas and Mrs. Kitty Pruett, the 1970 CMA Homecoming was one of the most memorable in CMA history.

The Homecoming weekend was enhanced by the beautiful fall weather. At the Homecoming game, CMA, hampered by injuries, was narrowly defeated by arch-rival BGA. At halftime, the queen was crowned and her court was presented. CMA alumni attended an Open House at the Graymere Country Club after the game. The following day a formal parade was held honoring the alumni, followed by a barbecue luncheon in the Science Building.

Although the alumni attendance was not what it could have been, the 1970 Homecoming was a great success, and thoroughly enjoyed by everyone who attended.

Terry doesn't have to worry about his position next year—it's hereditary.

"Isn't the army nice to give us all this junk?"

"No wonder he's a Company Commander!"

"Don't worry, son, everything is already planned for you."

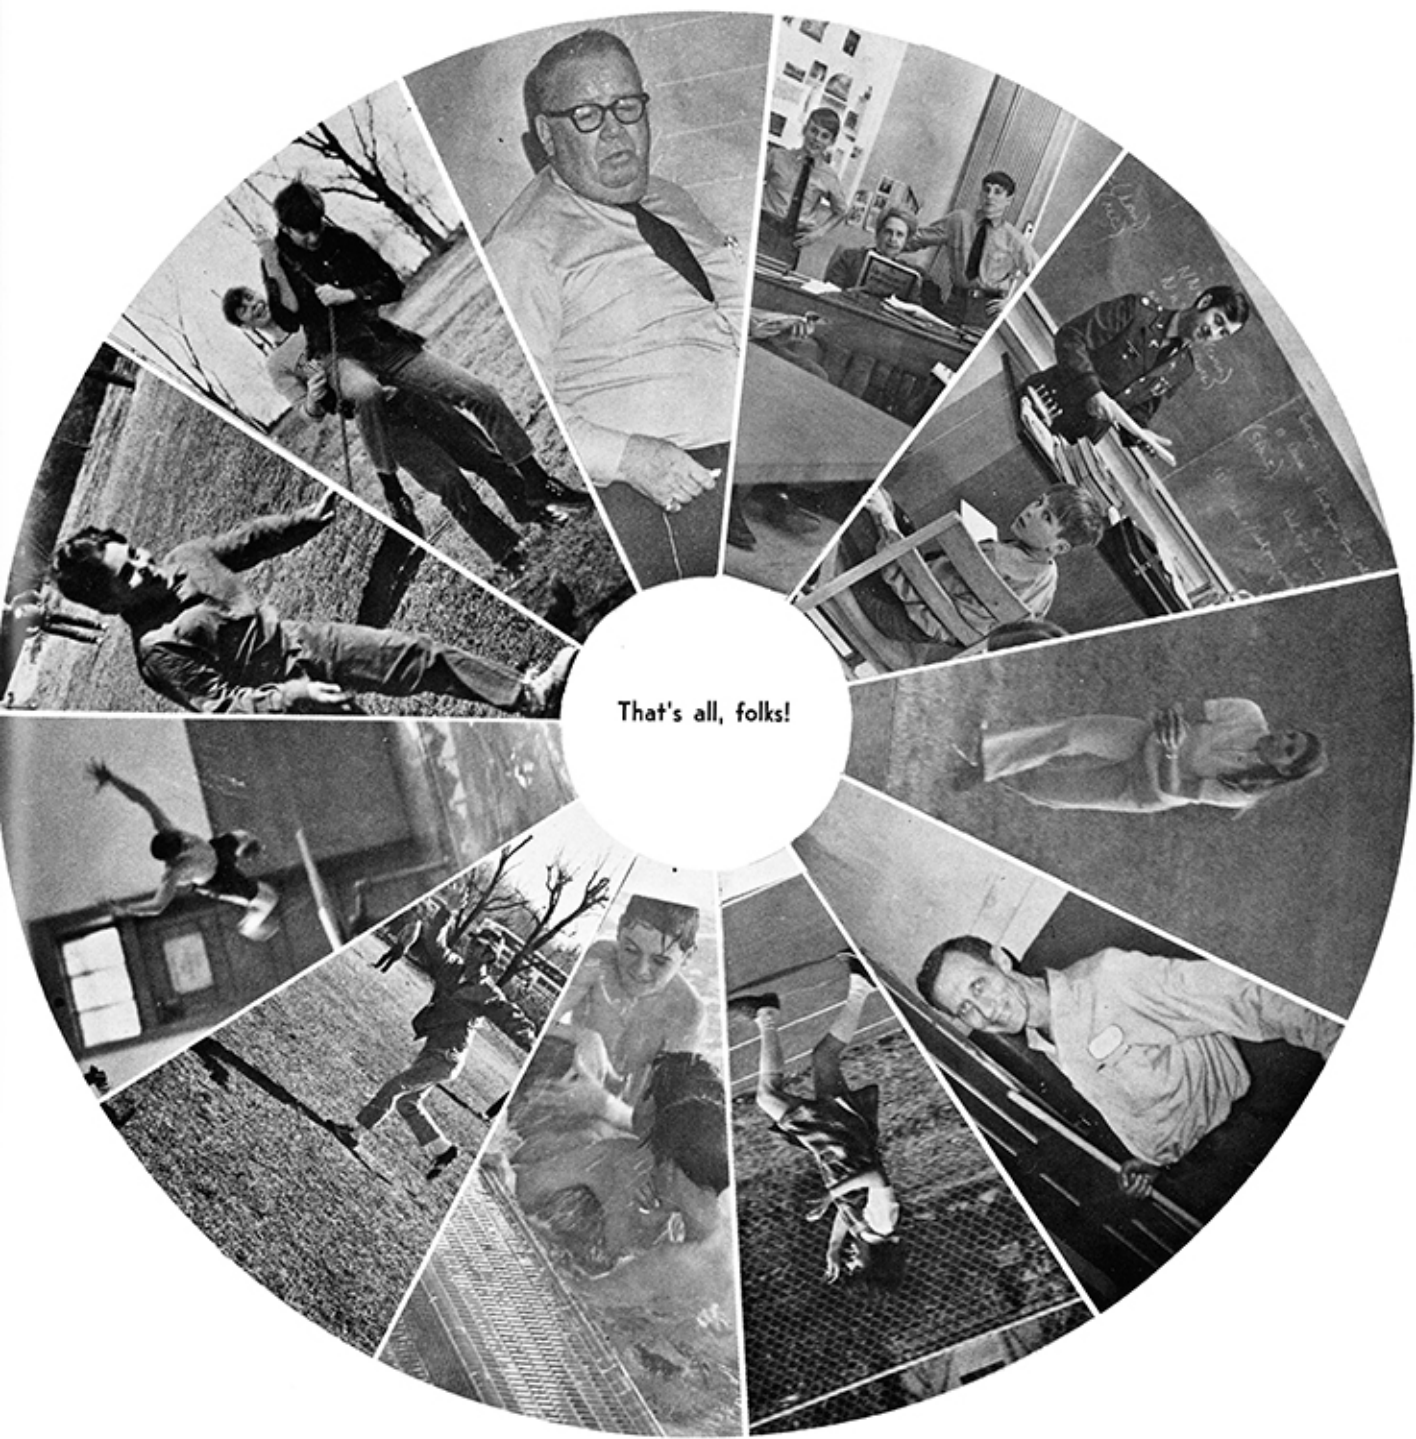

It's a bust!
