Dedication

William P. (Stumpy) Harris, Sr. was born June 11, 1923 in Mt. Pleasant, Tn. He also attended school in his hometown of Mt. Pleasant. In 1945 he joined the Army Air Force. His tours of service outside the U.S. were in Germany, the Philippines and Turkey. In 1970 he retired from the Air Force and came to CMA.

He is married to Flora (Burdette) Harris and has two sons, William Jr. and Robert L.

We are extremely proud of this man who has been such an asset to CMA. He has added so much to the Academy, and each student who has had the privilege of knowing him. Thus we dedicate the 1978-1979 Recall to the man most fondly referred to as "Stumpy," a man we respect, love, and feel is worthy of this honor.

Turn to pg. 128 for more on the man.

Mr. C.M.A.

Each year an outstanding individual is chosen by the Administration and Faculty to represent CMA, as being the one student who best exemplifies CMA.

This year Bill Hickman was chosen to this honor. Bill has attended CMA for six years, maintaining an average of scholarship, and characteristics of leadership, moral character, and outstanding attitude and personality. To be chosen as Mr. CMA is the greatest honor to be bestowed at CMA, and Bill has certainly proved worthy of this honor.

Hall Of Fame

This year seven outstanding students were elected to the Hall of Fame. They are: Rad Mayfield, Laura Frakes, Elizabeth Kennedy, Beverly Rayburn, Mark Fly, Carole Kustoff, and Jimmy Rippey. They are selected on the basis of academic standing, leadership, initiative, and contribution to the Academy. This is one of the finest all-around honors bestowed upon any students during their Senior year.

Valedictorian — Miss Elizabeth Kennedy
Salutatorian — Miss Beverly Rayburn

Elizabeth Kennedy .....	96.9
Leslie Fleming .....	93.7

A high-contrast, black and white silhouette of a person wearing a graduation cap and gown, shown in profile facing right. The silhouette is solid black against a white background. The cap is a mortarboard style with a tassel hanging down. The gown has a visible collar and a pocket on the left side. The overall image has a grainy, artistic quality.

The first year for the S.B.A. has proved to be a successful one. We have tried to provide a source whereby the student's opinions can be officially voiced. The scope of these opinions is not limited and concern every aspect of student life. It is my goal as President to strengthen the S.B.A. as much as possible and thereby strengthen the school.

The 1979 RECALL staff, in our efforts to bring about an accurate representation of the 1978-1979 school year, has worked diligently all through the year. We feel that we have captured CMA in all of it's glory and pride, and have done so with equal concern to all areas: Academics, School Spirit, and the Pride that goes into all of it. We have endured much: the gathering of pictures and information toward meeting deadlines, multiple hours spent at odd hours of the day, and General Frustration. We feel that this is a supreme work of journalism. We hope that it will be as a monument to all that CMA has been to those of us who knew it well.

Honor Council

The Honor Council, advised by John Rose, is the beginning of a rich tradition of student involvement in the disciplinary measures taken against fellow students. Through the system of trial, the council decides whether or not the accused is guilty, and what punishment will prevail. Surviving much skepticism, the Honor Council has proved to be a success at CMA.

The National Honor Society was founded in 1921 under the sponsorship of the National Association of Secondary School Principals. From only 14 chapters in 1922 the society has grown to over 15,000 chapters today. The C.M.A. chapters of the N.H.S., number 9893, was founded in the early 1950's. At present our chapter has eleven members in grades 10-12 who represent the highest ideals of scholarship, service, leadership and character. The chapter advisor is Mr. John S. Rose.

The Bugle Call this year has had many complications and has come through all with flying colors. Under the direction of John Jarrett (and Betty Kennedy) the Bugle Call has provided us with current information about school life at CMA, and also with articles of worldwide interest. Although there was at one time controversy over the title "Bugle Call", it has endured, as we hope it will in the years to come.

The Columbia Academy Key Club is a student civic club. The Key Club International Theme for 1978-79 is "Respond To Society's Needs". As I am writing this in December our club has already had many successful projects and it has great plans for the future. The CMA Key Club helped in the paper drive last spring and summer. We also helped in the Shrine Paper Sale, and was in charge of the Football and Basketball concession stand with half of the money going to the Athletic Department. We also plan to have donut sales and other service projects during the year.

Key Club is an International organization that is operated by high school students and has clubs in the United States, Canada, and the Carribean. The Columbia Kiwanis Club supports the CMA Key Club.

1978 CMA Bulldogs

Coach Jim Barrom and his CMA Bulldogs captured a stunning record of 9-2 for the 1978 season. The mighty Bulldogs won 8 regular season games and earned the Lions Bowl Championship with a 31-0 victory.

The powerful Bulldog offense netted a total of 4,410 yards and the defense allowed only 4.2 points per game. A true gridiron-force the Bulldogs were ranked 8th in the State in Class A division.

The leadership of the '78 seniors will always be remembered by the players, students and the faculty of CMA. History was made by the Bulldogs this season a history long to be remembered.

WAST WAZZ AND TESTAMENT

I Celeste South being of sound mind and body hereby leave my ability to make it thru the week by arriving late at least twice with always a twinkle in my eyes to anyone who would appreciate the technique.

I, Roy Hughes, and a senior finally leave to John Blank my key to the gym. To all underclassmen the key to Trotwood Bar #37. To Mark Mayfield my ability to call "Huddle." To Coach Howell my great coaching ability and to Stump my ability to keep things clean.

I Rocky Dunkman leave to Cheri Boshers my reclining chair, to Ray White I leave a dollar cause Patty stole the other one. To Susie I leave Ricky's and my collection of books, to Jock Floyd I leave a jar of Red Hot. To CMA I leave all the luck in the world, and spirit too!

I Carole Kustoff leave to Paige all of my misery on the cheerleading squad and all of the good times I had "otherwise." To Major Hann I leave hope of one day finding a competent annual staff editor who meets all deadlines.

I Mike Finney leave to my loyal Coach, Coach Braine, I leave my ability not to "hack around." To my cousin John Finney I leave my Chicago bachelor's pad. To Jose Castro I leave 3 cases of Tic-Tac. To Jeff Rich I leave my ability to grow a beard. I Leslie Fleming, being of sound mind and body leave to Leigh McClain my most famed "Bunny" suit. And to Lou Ann Day, I leave my presidential position of the national I.B.T.C.

I Buddy Finney, who everyone knows to be insane and crazy, would like to leave Paige a larger pair of feet if I could. And I leave to Drake my complete book on "How to Play Pinball and Win!"

I Laura Frakes leave to Jeff Lowe all of the Beatle songs that run through my mind when I'm bored with class. I leave the 1980 Recall to anyone who is willing to tackle it, with the hope that they survive the year better than Carole and I did. I feel I really haven't much else to leave but if I did I'd leave it to Dan and Mike Gear and Paige McClain because I think they're really great!

I Rad Mayfield do barely bequeath the following: to the upcoming freshman class — the best of luck to make it through high school (seriously) to any one who wants them, my many nicknames ("Duck," "Bird," "*@#!", etc.); to John Blank, a little of my height. And last of all I leave to Evelyn Hollins all my basketball abilities (ha! ha!) I Bill Hickman leave to next years CMA cross country team my will to work hard and do your best in every meet.

I Jimmy Rippey, being of little mind and great body, ask, Elizabeth, do hereby leave my most favored spot behind the gym to Drake and Tracy Hale so that they may follow in the tradition. To Rob Courtney I leave my life subscriptions to Forbes and The Wall Street Journal so that when I'm in the gutter he will remember who made him what he is and bring me out. Jeff Knox and Eric Lee are the lucky ones who receive my honorary membership to Augusta. To Paige I leave all my Jimmy's firecracker stands so she can blow things up in the night. If I have anything left, which I doubt, I leave it all to Pieface. After being with Slack two years she couldn't have much.

I Cindy Rayburn leave to the girl's basketball team Kareem Abdul Jabar dressed incognito. To the Tennis team I leave the book, "The Fundamentals of Tennis and Even You can Hack Around". To Carrie Clark, Cindy Baldwin, and Rita Wade I leave sixty pairs of silver SCIZZORS! To Jeff Lowe and John Finney I leave luck with all the LITTLE PEOPLE!

I Bill Moore bequeath the following items: to John Blank I leave 2 inches of my height; I leave the advice to the underclassmen to not have refreshments behind the gym (A short little man may be watching). And last I have found when preparing for a football concession stand it is wise not to pull out in front of another car. Therefore I leave my driving ability to John Finney who seemed to get a good laugh out of my near fatal accident.

I Mark Fly do bequeath the following: To Tracy Hale my bootleg recording of "Mary Jane"; to Dan Gear my exceptional poker playing ability; to John Finney, the responsibility of carrying on the tradition of being a "slack"; to all future Key Clubbers the "Monday Nite Ritual" and lastly I leave Daye to anyone that can put up with her until I get back.

I Elizabeth Kennedy to bequeath my entire collection of worthless textbooks to Rob Courtney. To Paige I leave my 18th birthday present, after another year of this place she'll need it more than I! To Cynthia McAndrews I leave my eye patch and devo glasses for her next victim.

I Debbie Eaton leave Paige my collection of men pictures. To Louise Ring I leave my ability to round corners on Green's Mill Road. To Jeff Lowe I leave my pygmy spear and togs. To Coach Howell I leave HOW TO MEND A CLIPBOARD IN 5 EASY LESSONS. To Mrs. Stephenson I leave HOW TO IMPROVE YOUR SOCIAL LIFE THROUGH DISCO. To Mark Mayfield I leave my Gino Vanelli albums and four years of waiting. To the Fearless Foursome I leave my fake I.D. to use on their rounds of Nashville. And to everybody else I leave my love of CMA.

I Charles Webster leave to John Blank, Houston Thomas, and Michael Webster my quickness and speed.

I Win Halliday in almost sane mind, hereby bequeath the following articles and traits that mean so much to me. First to all students my ability to flip Jeeps. To Carter Mays and Dan Gear I leave my charm and good looks. And to all upcoming concert goers my official U.S. Army gas mask so you can breathe. Finally I wish all of you good luck and hope your senior year never matches the "Class of '79!"

I Karen Baldwin, being of sound mind and body, leave to upcoming seniors my ability to come to school bright-eyed and bushy-tailed and leave dog-eared and droopy. To Martha Helm I leave my powdered wig and three-cornered hat and to Drake my dance picture of 9th grade.

I Beverly Rayburn leave to the girl's basketball team the Harlem Globe Trotters so that our record will finally be 31-0! To Rita Wade, I leave my ability to "hack around." To Susie Adams I leave our little game of "horse?"

I Tracy Landry leave to John Blank my loved name "Festus." To Susie Adams I leave the hope of finding her "macho man." To Ann I leave all my "illnesses" because she needs some.

I Amy Sisco leave to Coach Howell all the JUNK that has been in my basketball locker for 4 yrs. To Lee Ann Anderson I leave a small portion of my knowledge (that's all there is) so that she may pass the following year with a 70 in every class.

I Donna Hawkins leave to the graduating class to come, all the joys and happiness I have had at CMA and my ability to pass every subject with at least a 70 average.

I Jennifer Loftin leave to Lee Ann Anderson and Cindy Baldwin my position as basketball manager (have fun on the away trips) I leave my height to Evelyn Hollins so she might be a taller basketball player.

I Patty Lay leave to Coach Howell my ability to hold my temper and to the girl's b-ball team a season's supply of ear plugs. To Ray White I leave 3 dollars because "he said" I stole it. And to Cheri Boshers I leave some cover stick for when the vampire bites.

I Billy Jernigan leave to Rob Courtney my calculator battery, to John Finney my expert driving ability, to Ben Johnson the $2.50 he lost to Rob playing black jack. And most of all I leave all my critical analysis' to Rob Courtney to help in Roses's class next year.

Two Temples

A Builder builded a temple,
He wrought it with grace and skill;
Pillars and groins and arches
All fashioned to work his will.
Men said, as they saw its beauty,
"It shall never know decay;
Great is thy skill, O Builder!
Thy fame shall endure for age."

A Teacher builded a temple
With loving and infinite care,
Planning each arch with patience,
Laying each stone with prayer.
None praising her unceasing efforts,
None knew of her wonderful plan,
For the temple the teacher builded
Was unseen by the eyes of man.

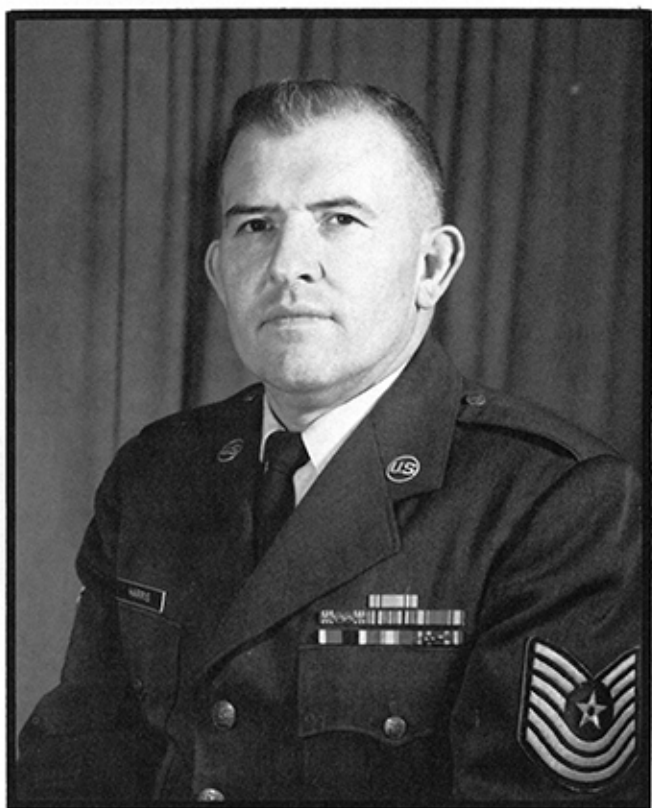

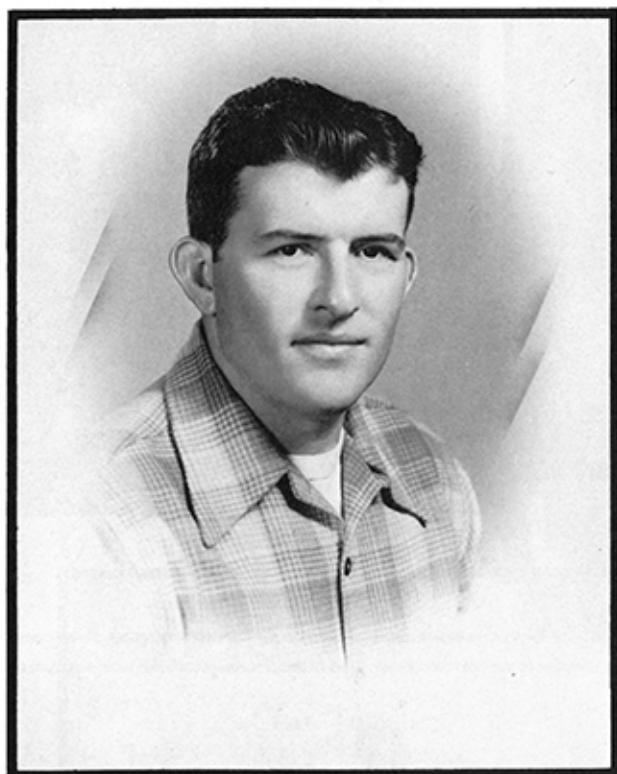

Gone is the Builder's temple,
Crumpled into the dust;
Low lies each stately pillar,
Food for consuming rust.
But the temple the Teacher builded
Will last while the ages roll,
For that beautiful unseen temple
Was a child's immortal soul.

We
Love
You.

I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY
AGAIN

Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man,
Let me do it while I can.
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again.
