IN MEMORIAM

COL. JOHN B. THOMAS

DEDICATION

The yearbook this year is dedicated to the Columbia Military Academy Military Department composed of Major Jerry L. Isler, Master Sergeant Robert F. Allen (Ret.) and Sergeant First Class Donald Sorrell.

Major Isler entered the service in 1952 at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin for basic training. He served in Korea in '59 and '60 during which time he won Division NCO of the Month twice. In 1963 he was selected for Infantry OCS at Fort Benning, Georgia. He graduated as an honor graduate in 1964. In March of 1967 he became a Vietnam Battalion Advisor and later a Regimental Advisor. He was the only Captain ever to hold that position. In 1970, he was assigned duty at the 5th U.S. Army NCO Academy filling a Lt. Colonel's position as Captain. In 1973, Major Isler came to CMA as Senior Army Instructor.

Major Isler has received several awards which include the Vietnam Medal of Honor, 4 Army Commendation Medals, 5 Bronze Stars (3 for valor and 2 for meritorious service), the Combat Infantry Badge, and the Master Parachute Badge both American and Vietnamese.

MSG Allen is the military property custodian at CMA. He retired from the Army in September, 1961. He has been at CMA ever since as an ROTC instructor. While on active duty MSG Allen served in the Philippines, Panama, Alaska, Germany, Japan, and Korea. During his service MSG Allen was awarded the Bronze Star medal with Valor Device, Purple Heart with Oak Leaf Cluster, Asiatic Pacific Campaign Ribbon with 3 Arrowheads, and 5 Stars and a Philippine Presidential Citation.

Sergeant First Class Sorrell came to CMA in 1970 and has served since then as a military instructor and coach of the Rifle Team. His tours of duty have taken him to places like Korea, Germany, Texas, and Tampa, Florida, where he was an ROTC Instructor from 1967 to 1969. In 1969 he was a Field First Sergeant in Vietnam. Here at CMA, Sgt. Sorrell has coached the Rifle Team from an average score of 850 to a team aggregate average of 1000 this year. Also known as FM 22-5 Sorrell, Sgt. Sorrell has won the Air Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Bronze Star for both meritorious service and valor, and the Expert Infantry Badge.

Thus it is with pleasure that the RECALL Staff of 1974 dedicates this annual to the Military Department at Columbia Military Academy.

SOCCKER

The soccer team this year did a really fine job considering the lack of returning lettermen and players. The 2-8 record was not at all representative of the amount of effort put forth by each player.

One highlight of the season was a victory over St. Andrews, after leaving two starters, Gilly Conners and David Conners behind. Seniors on the team were David Davis, Bobby DePriest, Scott King, Robin Layton and Mick Pousardien.

WRESTLING

Coach Lawrence Murphy

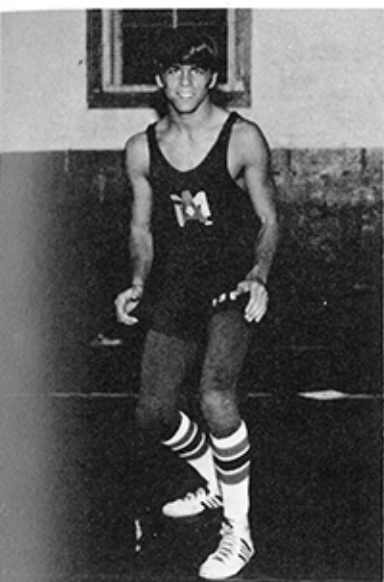

This year the CMA Wrestling Team coached by Lawrence Murphy and led by Team Captain Roger Bedford boasted several impressive victories and place team members in the medal winning division of every tournament entered.

Each member of the team learned the meaning of pride and the wonderful feeling of victory. Unfortunately, the team will be losing four seniors this year: Henry Arrocha, Roger Bedford, Kevin Kirkpatrick, and Hank Lindsey. However with the experience gained this year, there should be another fine season next year.

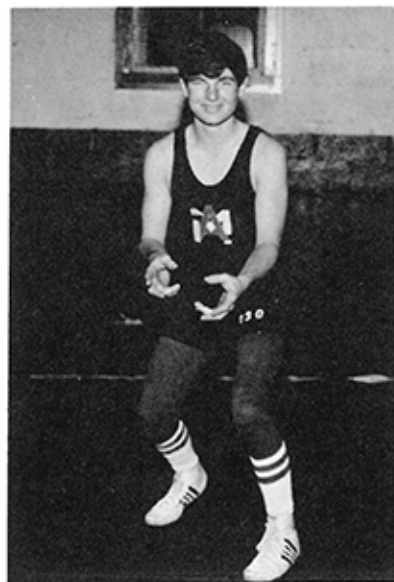

This year, the team sent two wrestlers to the Regional Tournament, Tom Pittman and Roger Bedford. From there Roger who didn't lose a regular season match all year advanced to the State Tournament and became one of the best eight wrestlers in his weight in the state. This was quite an honor for both Roger and the team.

BASEBALL

The baseball team is expecting to have a good season this year. They will be led by veteran pitcher Levy Turner. Other veterans include Rick Hopkins, Jimmy Andrews, Ricky Rhodes, Mark Williams, Kevin Kirkpatrick and Lee McAdams. Coaches Richard Howell and Tom Jones are really expecting a lot out of this team.

RECALL

Perhaps the most distinguished group of individuals at CMA is the elite, odd-but-true, staff of the RECALL 1974. We dedicated few have risked life and limb to recreate visions of the CMA life of 1973-74 in the hopes that you will long remember the joyous days within these hallowed iron gates.

Thanks for our yearbook should go to our faculty advisor, Major Graham Hann and his unending encouragement, "It's only high school!" Next in line for credit is Senior Paul Francis who just became editor-in-chief of the greatest masterpiece in the history of CMA!

We are also indebted to assistant editors Anne Hollins, Currey Courtney and Frank Williams, without whose help this book could never have been published.

The rest of the staff is composed of happy-go-lucky individuals, who, either voluntarily or by brute-force, have braved cameras, typewriters, and many other strange tasks to bring you RECALL 1974.

The Junior Civitan Club is primarily a service organization, although its members enjoy fellowship and recreation as well as hard work. Junior Civitan offers unlimited opportunities for each member to serve his school, community, and his country by taking an active part in the projects of the club.

This year the Junior Civitan Club remained busy operating a snack bar, concession stands, and selling pollywogs. In addition to their work for the school, the members gave some of their time and energy to work together for a Bike-a-Thon Crusade against cancer.

Representatives from Junior Civitans were present at District Conventions in locations such as Memphis and Clarksville.

Major A. C. Howell and Chief Ryland are faculty sponsors of Junior Civitan: "The builders of good citizenship."

HI-Y

Although many difficulties faced them this year, the Hi-Y Club and its enthusiastic members have managed once again to live up to their promise:

"I pledge my best effort to uphold the purpose of this organization which is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of christian character, to promote clean speech, clean athletics, clean scholarship, and clean living."

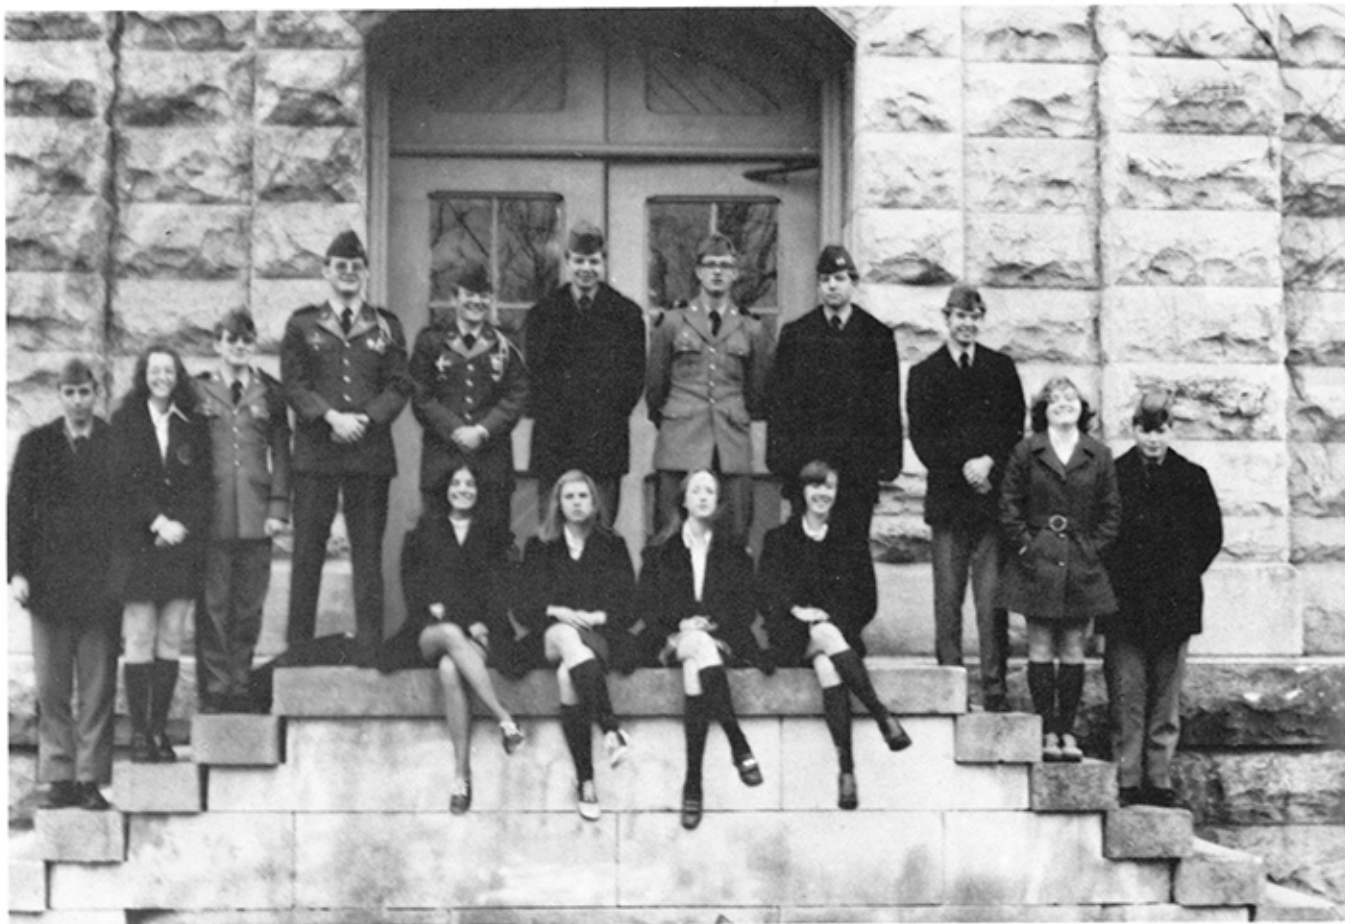

The Hi-Y members held a raffle, sold flowers at dances, and many other worthwhile projects to benefit the club, school, and community.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club assists Mrs. Stephenson, the school librarian by taking care of the library. Mrs. Stephenson sponsors the club and teaches the members the various classification systems for the reference materials. Besides keeping the library in order, the members raised some money for buying new shelves and flooring for the reference room. They also sponsored the Book Fair in which many contemporary novels were sold.

Van McMinn—Treasurer; Martin Phillips—President; Marshall Briggs—Secretary.

Mrs. Stephenson, Librarian.

DANCE COMMITTEE

The Dance Committee is composed of students who voluntarily assume the responsibility of planning and decorating for the formal dances of the year. Under the capable direction of Captain Russell Snyder, the Dance Committee decorated the Homecoming Dance, Sweetheart Dance, Military Ball and the Commencement Dance.

FELLOWSHIP OF CHRISTIAN ATHLETES

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes is an organization which stresses to promote a Christian spirit relevant to athletics. Members strive to keep sports clean and honorable. Major Lyle Hampton is the faculty sponsor.

FEATURES

MR. CMA

The highest honor that can be achieved at Columbia Military Academy is Mr. CMA. The cadet is chosen by the faculty and administration. He must display leadership, high moral character, scholarship and have an outstanding attitude.

Cadet Major Chuck Cobb is one such cadet. He is this year's Battalion Executive Officer and President of Hi-Y, a service organization on campus. Chuck was voted Most Likely to Succeed by the Senior Class and is the Salutatorian this year.

Mr. CMA is the model of what all cadets should strive to be. He is what would make this school perfect, were everyone like him.

HALL OF FAME

Every year, the faculty, Military Department and Administration pick six cadets to be named to the Hall of Fame. Membership is based on initiative, citizenship, character, scholarship, constructive leadership and contribution to the improvement of the school. This year's Hall of Fame is made up of Chuck Cobb, Paul Francis, Holmes Morel, Ed Lawing, Jim Welch and Frank Williams.

Chuck was named Mr. CMA. He is this year's Salutatorian and is the Battalion Executive Officer. Paul is the Editor of the RECALL. He is the Valedictorian and is the Co-Captain of the Rifle Team. Holmes is the Co-Captain of the Football and Basketball Team. He is the Junior School Supervisor. Ed is the President of Junior Civitan and he is also a Co-Captain of the Football Team. He is one of this year's Company Commanders.

Jim has consistently been at the top of his class. He is this year's Adjutant. Frank is the Battalion Commander and the Captain of the Rifle Team. He is also an Assistant Editor of the RECALL.

Paul Francis

VALEDICTORIAN

Cadet Captain Paul Francis, by virtue of being the academic leader of the Senior Class of 1974, was selected Valedictorian. Paul is from Forest Hills, New York City, and has attended CMA for six years. He has maintained his goal of cum laude for six years and achieved membership in the National Honor Society for two years. Aside from studying, Paul has been kept busy winning medals, which include the Freshman Medal, Latin I Medal, Latin II Medal, Junior Medal, Math Medal, Superior MT-3 Cadet Medal, and last but not least the Expert Medal for marksmanship on the Rifle Team.

Paul is a member of Junior Civitan, in which he serves as District Treasurer and he was also selected to the Hall of Fame and elected Most Studious by the Senior Class.

SALUTATORIAN

Cadet Major Chuck Cobb from Memphis, Tennessee, has been chosen the Salutatorian of the Senior Class of 1974. Chuck had a 4.60 quality point average for his junior year and a 97.75 average for the first two quarters of his senior year. Chuck has attended CMA for four years and has been at the top of his class every year. He won the American History Medal last year and was elected Most Likely to Succeed by the Senior Class. Chuck has been a member of the National Honor Society for the past two years and was chosen Mr. CMA by the faculty this year.
